National Credit Men, Numbering 1,400 Will Be In City To-morrow

Special Steamship to Bring Party From Seattle; Luncheon Arranged for Armories at Which City and Government Officials Will Tender Greetings; Chamber of Commerce Makes Plea for Automobiles to Aid in Transportation of Visiting Delegation

Victoria will to-morrow be host to 1,400 members of the National Credit Men's Association and their ladies, who will spend the afternoon in the city following their convention in Seattle.

The Chamber of Commerce this morning issued a last-minute plea to citizens to aid with transportation of the visitors during the afternoon. Two hundred automobiles will be needed to drive the party around the city following a luncheon which will be held at the Armories soon after their arrival. Several members of the Chamber of Commerce and private citizens have already volunteered the use of their cars for this purpose, but a large number are still needed.

COME ON MARGUERITE

The C.P.R. coastal liner Princess Marguerite has been chartered for the trip from Seattle to Victoria and will arrive here at 11.45 a.m., according to present arrangements. An hour will be spent in the city shopping district, after which the visitors will attend a luncheon at the Armories, commencing at 1 p.m.

Following this luncheon, at 2.45 p.m. the party will be taken on a sightseeing tour around the city and Saanich Peninsula by those volunteering the use of their cars. Any citizens who wish to aid in the matter are requested to get in touch at their earliest possible convenience with the Chamber of Commerce, telephone 7500.

The importance of the visit of the credit men to this city has been particularly stressed by Chamber of Commerce officials. They represent large associations in many parts of the United States and the publicity and advertising they will give to this city will be of inestimable value, both in regard to tourist travel and material ways. It is pointed out that the city of Seattle is spending in the neighborhood of $27,000 on the entertainment of the credit men, of which $7,000 will be expended in sending them to Victoria.

LUNCHEON AT ARMORIES

The luncheon at the Armories will be attended by Government, city and Chamber of Commerce officials, who will tender greetings to the visitors. The chairman of the credit association will reply.

Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Butchart will entertain a number of the leading officials of the association at their beautiful home, "Benvenuto," near Brentwood, following the luncheon, and the opportunity is given other independent citizens of Victoria to aid in the boosting of their city by aiding in the entertainment of this powerful association.

Firearms, Shoes, Medicine and Radio Battery Wanted By Italia Survivors

At Spitzbergen Greatest Speed Used in Preparations For Rescue Attempts

Rome, June 12.—General Umberto Nobile, leading a party of five men across the ice in the hope of reaching safety, has asked that firearms, shoes, medicines, floats, a field kitchen and a radio battery be sent to the survivors of the Italia by aeroplane, according to word received here.

FACE GREAT DANGER

King's Bay, Spitzbergen, June 12.—At least some of the crew of the dirigible Italia, stranded on the ice pack north of Spitzbergen faced a crisis to-day as Captain Riiser-Larsen and Lieut. Luetzow Holm, Norwegian aviators, rushed preparations to bring them aid. With three of the crew definitely missing and possibly lost, and the rest of the explorers divided into two parties drifting on an ice floe westward toward land, the utmost speed was used to-day in attempts to reach the stranded men.

AT MOSSEL BAY

Two men arrived at Mossel Bay early this morning with gasoline for Lieut. Holm who was stranded there after a five-day search which he had been delayed considerably by fog and unfavorable ice conditions.

As soon as the Norwegian airman received the gasoline he flew to the sealer Hobb, and went into conference with Captain Riiser-Larsen preparatory to making a new series of flights in an effort to find the missing men. He reported he had sighted none of the Italia crew during his search.

PROVISIONS LOST

Oslo, Norway, June 12.—Messages from Spitzbergen to-day said the crew of the Italia had lost a great part of the provisions which were aboard the airship for use in an emergency, when disaster overtook the expedition. Much of the other equipment was also lost.

In coming down on the Arctic ice the cabin and engines of the ship were smashed. It was reported the engineer of the expedition had been killed in the crash but this could not be confirmed, and it was stated General Nobile had said nothing about it.

HON. E. D. BARROW

Chilliwack, June 12.—Hon. E. D. Barrow Minister of Agriculture, was unanimously chosen as the Liberal candidate for the Legislature in this constituency at a convention here last night.

Committees were formed to carry on a vigorous campaign in all parts of the riding and confidence of success was expressed.

ONTARIO WINS SCHOOL CASE

Ruling of Privy Council in London Is Against Separate High Schools in Province

London, June 12 (Canadian Press Cable).—The Judicial Committee of the Privy Council here to-day dismissed the appeal of the Roman Catholic Board of School Trustees of Tiny Township, Ontario, from adverse decisions in the Canadian courts on their claims against the Province of Ontario.

Representing all Ontario separate schools, the appellants had contended certain sections of the Ontario Education Act were ultra vires, that Roman Catholics had the right to establish separate high schools and collegiate institutes, that Roman Catholic school supporters were not bound to contribute to the upkeep of undenominational high schools and collegiates, and that they were entitled to share on a basis of an average of attendance in the public grants to schools.

ACTION STARTED IN 1920

The dismissal of these claims is the culmination of a test which began in 1920 when the Government of Ontario began to put back into the consolidated revenue the unearned grants in connection with education in the province. The sum involved amounted to almost $500,000, which was paid into court by the then Attorney-General, Hon. W. E. Raney, now a judge of the Ontario Supreme Court.

ORIGINAL PETITION

The case, formally known as "The Board of Roman Catholic Separate School Trustees for the Township of Tiny and Others against His Majesty the King," arose when the trustees prepared a petition of rights in which they sought the following:

1. A declaration that certain sections of the Education Act of Ontario were prejudical to the rights of denomination schools and were ultra vires.

NEW SCHEME TO STABILIZE FRENCH FRANC

Paris, June 12.—It was learned on high authority that the Poincare Cabinet to-day finally agreed on a general plan for stabilization of the franc.

The plan probably will be presented to Parliament at the end of next week.

There remain many details to be worked out, but the major difficulty is understood to have been disagreement with the Cabinet itself.

North Vancouver Commission Holds Inquiry to Fix Causes of Dissension

Investigation Caused By Chief's Request That Constable Be Suspended

North Vancouver, June 12.—The Police Commission of North Vancouver district started an investigation at 2 o'clock this afternoon at which all members of the police will be examined under oath regarding alleged dissension within the ranks.

The decision to hold an inquiry was reached yesterday when Chief Constable W. W. Hemmingway asked the board to suspend Constable W. P. Allward. Allward denied the chief's allegations. Subsequent interrogation of other officers resulted in a decision to conduct an inquiry.

BOLL FLIGHT STARTS TO-DAY

Young Woman and Three Men Fliers Leave New York For Newfoundland

PLANE FRIENDSHIP FAILS TO TAKE OFF WITH HEAVY LOAD

Trepassey, Nfld., June 12.—After making five unsuccessful attempts to take off on a transatlantic flight, the monoplane Friendship was back at its moorings here this afternoon apparently having abandoned hope of an immediate start. Flying conditions were ideal, but the heavy load the plane was carrying prevented it from rising into the air.

Wilmer Stultz and Lou Gordon are the crew of the Friendship, Miss Amelia Earhart being a passenger.

Sydney, N. S., June 12.—The monoplane Columbia passed over Sydney at 4.25 p.m. Atlantic Daylight Time, and headed northeast over Cabot Strait for Harbor Grace, Nfld.

Roosevelt Field, New York, June 12.—Miss Mabel Boll, who desires to be the first woman to cross the Atlantic by aeroplane, took off at 7.20 o'clock this morning in the monoplane Columbia for Harbor Grace, Nfld., on her second attempt to essay an Atlantic crossing.

The monoplane, veteran of an ocean flight to Germany, was piloted by Captain Oliver le Boutillier and Arthur Argles, United States veterans of the British Royal Air Force. Aboard the plane also was Andrew Surrini, chief mechanician.

WEATHER REPORTS

Definite decision to make the flight to-day was not reached, until about 4 o'clock this morning, when Charles A. Levine had received a weather report that indicated clear weather between here and Harbor Grace. Conditions over the Atlantic, however, were reported not so good, and he said no attempt would be made to make a direct flight to Europe. Harbor Grace is 1,100 miles from here.

The plane, loaded with about 350 gallons of gasoline, made a perfect takeoff from the famous transatlantic runway after a run of about three-eighth of a mile.

The Columbia is the plane in which Clarence D. Chamberlin and Charles A. Levine flew from New York to Germany last Summer.

Sergt. G. McLaughlin Tells Inquiring Commissioner About Vancouver Conditions

Vancouver, June 12.—Chief of Police H. W. Long told him in 1926 to "ease up" on certain gambling places, but he did not mention any names, Detective Sergeant George McLaughlin testified under cross-examination at this forenoon's session of the Vancouver police inquiry.

"He said I should let 54 Cordova Street run. He said the mayor had been over to see him about the place and to let it run," McLaughlin swore.

"Did the chief say what reasons the mayor had given why the place should be allowed to run?" asked A. H. MacNeill, K.C., commission counsel.

"No," was the reply.

In reply to another question the witness declared it was common talk at the police station that the mayor was letting gambling run and he was "letting the town run wide open."

SLACKENING OFF SEEN

To further questioning McLaughlin declared conditions on the force had not been in very good standing.

"What was the root of the trouble in your opinion?" asked Mr. MacNeill.

"The chief had not enough iron in him," replied the witness. "He did

NEW CABINET FOR GERMANY

Following Marx Ministry's Resignation President Calls on Ex-Chancellor Mueller

Berlin, June 12.—President von Hindenburg to-day accepted the resignation of the Coalition Cabinet headed by Dr. Wilhelm Marx and asked former Socialist Chancellor Hermann Mueller to form a new Cabinet.

The Marx Cabinet was established January 31, 1927, as a government of the Right after the fall of Dr. Marx's "Little Coalition" Government. It was a coalition of the Centrists, the German People's Party, Nationalists and the Bavarian People's Party.

The Socialists in the Reichstag-election of May 20 last obtained 152 seats, a gain of twenty-two over their former representation. This was regarded as placing them in a dominant position and making their participation in the new Government inevitable.

Hermann Mueller, who is fifty-two years old, has been a member of the Reichstag since 1920 and is a member of the directorate of the Socialist Party. He was Minister of Foreign Affairs in 1919-20 and Chancellor in 1920. With Dr. Johannes Bell, he signed the Versailles peace treaty in behalf of Germany in 1919.

WRONG FIGURES ON POPULATION

Mackenzie Points Out Tolmie Understated B.C.'s Total in Calgary Interview

Vancouver, June 12—That simply for the sake of scoring a point politically, Hon. S. F. Tolmie, Conservative leader, understated British Columbia's population by more than 100,000 in his Calgary interview published here Sunday, was a statement made to-day by Hon. Ian Mackenzie, Provincial Secretary.

The present population of the province was excess of 667,000, the Minister stated.

"The Dominion census of 1921 showed a population of 524,000," said Mr. Mackenzie. "The school population that year was 85,000. The school population last year was 105,000, an increase since 1921 of 23.5 per cent.

"Applying the same ratio of increase to general population British Columbia would pass the mark of 667,000 last year.

1928 FIGURES AWAITED

That this was a conservative estimate of the present population Mr. Mackenzie contended on the ground that it was based on the 1927 school enrollment, the 1928 figure not being available at the moment. He also pointed out that in a new country such as British Columbia there was a tendency of the general population to increase faster than school population because of the steady influx of young people from the east and the Old Country.

"Dr. Tolmie will do neither his party nor his province any good be belittling British Columbia's growth," commented the Minister, "particularly in an interview given in another province."

Swing At U.S. Republican Convention Indicates Nomination of Hoover

Secretary of Commerce Will Be Chosen on First Ballot to Stand for Election as President in November, His Managers at Big Party Gathering in Kansas City Predict

Kansas City, Mo., June 12.—The nomination of Herbert Hoover for the presidency of the United States became a certainty to-day as the Republican National Convention was about to get under way when the big Pennsylvania delegation, at the suggestion of Secretary of the Treasury Mellon, decided to support the Commerce Secretary on the first ballot.

On top of this development, which the Hoover managers said alone gave them the votes to win, Chairman Butler of the Republican National Committee announced his vote as a delegate at large from Massachusett swould be recorded for Hoover. He so advised his fellow members of the Massachusetts delegation at a morning caucus.

No sooner had word of the drift to the Secretary of Commerce spread among the delegates from other states than the Idaho delegation of eleven, previously instructed for Senator W. E. Borah, decided to board the Hoover band wagon. It was closely followed by the New Jersey delegation with thirty-one votes.

James W. Word, manager for Hoover, jubilant over the turn of events, predicted his candidate would be nominated before seventy-five per cent of the delegates had been recorded on the first ballot. One of his first acts was to telephone Mr. Hoover in Washington, assuring him it was all over.

PROPAGANDA STORY FALSE

"B.C.'s Progress" Distributed to Business Men as Advertisement

Demand For More Copies Forces Printing of New Issue of 5,000 Copies

"British Columbia's Progress," the Government booklet which was attacked by Major Gus Lyons, of Victoria, as Liberal political propaganda, is nothing of the sort, and is being distributed broadcast to businessmen here, in other parts of Canada and in Britain as good advertising for British Columbia, Hon. W. H. Sutherland, Acting Premier, declared to-day.

Dr. Sutherland announced that banks, financial houses and business firms generally had made such large demands for copies of the booklet that the Government had ordered the King's Printer to turn out 5,000 more copies, making a total issue of 30,000 copies.

NO POLITICS

The first issue of 25,000 copies, the Acting Premier stated, was sent out to every candidate in the present election, Conservatives as well as Liberals.

"It was not a mistake that Major Lyons got one, as he says," Dr. Sutherland added. "A copy was sent to him as a public man, just as copies were sent to all Conservative candidates, to banks, financial houses, real estate firms, and business men generally. Since then applications for more copies have been pouring in. We have on file applications for 2,000 copies, among them, by the way, a request for 350 copies from the firm of R. P. Clark, with which Major Lyons was long associated. The Agent-General's office in London wants 5,000 copies, and we expect eastern financiers, when they receive the copies we have sent out, will want many more. The 5,000 extra copies which will be printed now will not nearly cover the demand."

The cost of the booklet, Dr. Sutherland explained, is being paid for out of the publicity vote approved by the Legislature.

ADVERTISING PLAN

"This," he said, "is just part of our programme for advertising British Columbia's resources, possibilities and progress to the world. The favorable comments of business men all over Canada on the booklet shows that it is accomplishing its purpose."

To support this statement, Dr. Sutherland produced a sheaf of letters from business men praising the booklet as an accurate and convenient statement of British Columbia's progress in recent years and as an indication of its future possibilities.

He added that the accuracy of the figures contained in it could not be questioned. The figures relating to the tangible wealth of the Province, he emphasized, were prepared by the Dominion Bureau of Statistics and not in British Columbia.

ALBERTA LOSES MINE APPEAL

London, June 12 (Canadian Press Cable)—The appeal of the Province of Alberta in its case against the Caledonian Collieries was dismissed to-day by the Judicial Committee of the Privy Council here. The question at issue was as to whether the Alberta Mine Owners' Tax Act of 1923 was beyond the power of authority of the Province of Alberta, which the collieries contended was attempting to impose indirect taxation. The case came from the Supreme Court of Canada.

FISHING BOAT AGROUND NEAR TRIAL ISLAND

Running aground on the rocks approaching Trial Island, just off Shoal Bay, the fishing boat Talamasco, owned by the British Columbia Fisheries Limited of Vancouver, was high and dry to-day. Coming into Victoria this morning at 6 o'clock, the little vessel got caught in the strong rip and came to grief on the rocks off the island. It is expected she will be able to get off under her own power when the tide changes this evening.

THOUSANDS LOSE IN BANCITALY STOCK COLLAPSE

N.Y. Exchange Swamped To-day By Selling in General Market Break

New York, June 12—Trading facilities on the stock exchange were swamped to-day by a flood of selling orders which carried prices of many issues down $5 to nearly $25 a share. So great was the volume of trading, particularly in the last hour, that the ticker fell more than one hour behind the market, causing widespread confusion in brokerage houses throughout the country.

An early rally staged by professional traders failed to attract outside buying power. Early gains of one to six points were wiped out.

Another violent break of more than thirty-five points in Bancitaly Corporation common stock on the New York Curb market, following the crash yesterday from 257 to 125, started the selling movement. A total of 110,900 shares were thrown on the market here to-day, and many thousands more on the markets in San Francisco and Los Angeles.

There was little in the day's business news to influence the present movement, Clark, money held firm at

POST-SESSION AIR IN OTTAWA

Members on Way to Homes After Prorogation; Cabinet Will Hold Meetings

Ottawa, June 12.—With the 1928 session of Parliament ended the great activity of the last few days in Ottawa has given place to a calm. Members from outside constituencies have left or are leaving for their homes. It is expected Cabinet meetings will be held during the next two weeks to clear up matters that were allowed to stand during the last strenuous days of the session. Then, probably, the Prime Minister and the majority of his colleagues of the Cabinet will have a brief rest.

PRAIRIE RESOURCES

There is one important matter, however, which will probably engage the attention of the Government in the near future. It was stated in the House during the session just ended that shortly after prorogation there would be further conference with respect to the transfer of the natural resources of the prairie provinces from Federal to Provincial control. Manitoba, Alberta, and possibly Saskatchewan, probably will send representatives to Ottawa to discuss this matter. The date of the conference remains to be announced, but the Prime Minister announced it would be shortly after the close of the session.

MUNICIPALITY'S FUNDS SHORT

Port Coquitlam Auditor Discovers Three Years' Irregularities Totaling $7,000

Maillardville, June 12.—Reeve R. C. Macdonald announced at a meeting of the Port Coquitlam municipal council last night that John Graham, auditor specially appointed to examine the municipal books, had reported irregularities amounting to $7,000 had been disclosed by the records for 1925, 1926 and 1927.

Mr. Graham stated there was evidence there had been irregularities during 1920, one item resulting in a loss of $500 to the municipality.

The council decided to instruct the special auditor to continue his investigation back for twelve years and that the Inspector of Municipalities should be notified.

NEW LEGATION AT TOKIO SOON

Premier Says Canada's Minister Will Be Great Aid; Funds Voted

Ottawa, June 12.—The Legation Canada is to establish at Tokio is provided for financially as a result of a vote yesterday passed shortly before prorogation. The approval of the House of Commons was shown when a Conservative motion moved by Sir George Perley, Argenteuil, Quebec, to reduce the vote from $50,000 to $1,000 was rejected. It was declared lost on division.

Premier King stated the Government of Japan had asked its Parliament to appropriate a similar amount to that appearing in Canada's estimates for the establishment of a Japanese Legation in Ottwa. As a result of recent discussions arrangements had been made to restrict the total number of Japanese immigrants coming to Canada to 150 a year. It had also been agreed that Canada's own Minister should vise the passports of such emigrants as sailed for Canada so he would be in a position to know whether or not they came within the admitted classes.

Mr. King placed on record his high appreciation of the manner in which the Japanese consul here and his Government had conducted the negotiations.

Consider Election On Business Basis Manson Urges Voters

Penticton, June 12.—Electors of British Columbia should consider the issues of the present provincial election campaign in terms of business, comparing the Liberal Government with the Conservative Opposition as they might compare two boards of directors in a commercial undertaking, Attorney-General Manson urged in a speech here last night.

Mr. Manson's address chiefly had to do with the story of the progress of British Columbia in the last ten or twelve years, but he prefaced his remarks prior to using the lantern slides to illustrate the progress with some general observations with regard to the coming election.

Defining politics as nothing more or less than the business of Government, he pleaded for a calm and reasoned campaign, in which the electorate should consider the issues as British Columbians rather than as partisans of any political party. He deprecated recrimination and abuse, and himself carefully avoided anything that might be interpreted as personalities. His speech was dignified and full of educative material; in fact, he gave to his audience rather more, highly interesting information than could be fully absorbed in the space of a single evening.

A DIRECTOR TO THE SHAREHOLDERS

He suggested to the audience that members of the Cabinet were to be compared with the directors of a large business concern; the election is the annual meeting, and the various directors make their reports to the shareholders. He pointed with pride to the fact that the present directors had substantially been in charge for a period of twelve years, and that only twice during that period had individual directors been refused approval, and of the two occasions once was but for a period of a few months.

INDIAN, PARALYZED AND BLIND, IS CURED BY HERBS

St. Catharines, Ont., June 12.—E. L. Lickers, an Indian living with his brother here, who for more than two years had been confined to his bed with paralysis and stone blind, yesterday started to work, having been cured through the use of herbs administered by a fellow Indian. Six weeks ago Lickers commenced taking the herbs and showed remarkable improvement from day to day.

Told he would die, Lickers was brought here on a stretcher on March 12. He was first taken ill in November, 1926, while confined in the Stony Mountain Penitentiary. The illness was a result, he believes, of lifting an iron bar to show his strength. After prison physicians had given up hope of his recovery, he was sent here to be cared for by his brother.

THE TESTS

The tests of government, according to Mr. Manson, were first: has the business and development of the Province satisfactorily progressed during the Cabinet's term of office. Secondly: Was the administrative record good. Thirdly: Was the Legislative record sound and progressive. Fourthly: Was the policy being offered by the Government a forward-looking policy, a stand-still policy or a retrograde policy?

CRITICISMS

Analyzing the criticisms made by Dr. Tolmie and his colleagues, it was found that they amounted to this—that the public debt had been increased out of reason; that the rate of taxation had been increased to such a point as to be oppressive to the taxpayer, and to the point that the flow of capital into the Province had been curtailed; that the Government had over-expended its estimates and not kept within its income. Apart from undignified and slanderous personalities used by some of the Opposition speakers unfortunately, these constituted the counts of the indictment as against the Government.

MR. OLIVER

Opening the principal part of the address, Mr. Manson threw on the screen a picture of the late Prime Minister Mr. Oliver, and referred to his splendid record of achievement in his private and public life, and gave to him the credit for the leadership which had made some of the accomplishments of recent years possible.

ENTIRE CREDIT NOT DUE GOVERNMENT

That no government could claim all the credit for industrial and business progress any more than that a government must accept entire responsibility for individual exceptions to progress, was freely admitted. But that a government was either a brake upon the wheels of progress or a foot upon the accelator to speed up development could not be denied.

AGRICULTURE

British Columbia has four basic industries: Agriculture, lumbering, mining and fishing. No one dreamt that British Columbia would ever be an agricultural Province at the time we entered Confederation, but subsequent events have proved the error of that view. The valleys have proved fertile and in the ten years ending in 1927 there had been an increase in agricultural production of 140 per cent over that of 1916. Every branch of agriculture had seen a magnificent growth. Aid had been given by the Government in the matter of the control of pests; in the matter of conservation of water in the irrigation districts; in the matter of marketing legislation and in the matter of trade extension work. A magnificent tract of land had been reclaimed from the Fraser and Vedder valleys, in the Sumas area, just at the door of the great City of Vancouver. The excessive cost over estimate had been lower than in any other reclamation work carried on in the Province by other Governments in days gone by. The export of agricultural products from British Columbia had trebled in the last ten years and the imports of agricultural products had only increased about twenty-five per cent in the same period, despite the increase in population of thirty-six per cent.

LUMBERING

The lumbering industries has seen an equally splendid increase in the last decade. The production to-day is 138 per cent greater than in 1916. The water-borne lumber trade has increased in the five years ending in 1926 by 984 per cent as against the five years ending 1916, largely due to the Government's interest in the organization of the Lumbermen's Board and the establishment of lumber trade extension commissioners to build up the foreign market. The pulp and paper production had increased 368 per cent in the last five years as against the five years ending in 1916. Ninety-three per cent of the logs cut in the Province were manufactured within the Province.

MINING

The mining industry had made a recovery particularly in the last five years of tremendous proportions. There had been an increase in production of metal within the Province of 101 per cent in 1927 as against 1916. British Columbia to-day was producing more than one-quarter of the total mineral of Canada. Capital was coming into the Province by the opening up of our mineral resources as never before, and all Dr. Tolmie's remarks with regard to the fear of capital of British Columbia were given a most conspicuous denial, in the inflow of capital that had taken place to develop the lumbering, mining, and the general industries of the Province.

TOTAL BASIC INDUSTRIES

The four basic industries added together showed a magnificent increase in 1926 of 101 per cent more than in 1916, and in 1928 the total production of these basic industries amounted to not less a sum than $250,000,000.

GENERAL PROGRESS

The school population had increased by 62 per cent, the general population by 36 per cent. Telephones had jumped from 10,000 in 1907 to 104,500 in 1928. The number of industrial firms had increased from 5,300 in 1919 to 8,200 in 1927, or 55 per cent. The industrial payroll had increased by $100,000,000, in the decade ending 1927. Power development had increased in the same period by 104 per cent and to-day there was in course of development no less than 465,000 additional horsepower, practically the amount that was in use to-day. Mr. Manson referred particularly to the great investments in the development of new electrical energy and the confidence of investors in the future of the Province. Bank clearings, customs collections, and shipping had all shown a splendid increase in the various ports. The cash investment in industry and commerce in the Province had grown from $650,000,000 to $2,292,000,000 in 1927. British Columbia had shown an increase of 36 per cent in the per capita investment in industry and commerce, whereas the average for the whole Dominion in the same period only amounted to 10 per cent.

TOLL OF GOVERNMENT

In the ten years ending in 1915 the Government had taken 11 per cent of the total production of the Province as its toll in direct and indirect taxes to the Treasury, but in the ten years ending in 1925 the Government had only taken 7½ per cent.

PROVINCIAL DEBT

The debt of the Province had substantially increased. Mr. Manson likened British Columbia with its splendid and diverse natural resources to the prospector with his raw prospect on the mountainside. The prospector must borrow to finance the development of his claim. British Columbia must borrow to finance the development of her industries and her raw resources. The increase in debt had been accounted for by the borrowings to pay the $2,000,000 of the $4,000,000 deficit left by the Bowser Government; by the $15,000,000 borrowed for the construction of highways; by the $5,000,000 borrowed to finance the building of the University; by the $2,500,000 borrowed for the establishment of new mental hospitals tubercular sanitariums, home for incurables and other public institutions by the $1,700,000 borrowed for returned soldiers housing; by the $1,000,000 borrowed for the establishment of industries; by the $10,000,000 borrowed for loans to farmers, the re-purchase of land sold by the Bowser Government to the speculators and the reclamation of the Sumas, and the irrigation of the Oliver area; by the $2,000,000 borrowed for loans to irrigation districts The net increase in the debt in the last ten years had amounted to $25,000,000. Not a large sum, Mr. Manson contended, in the light of the progress that had been made. The debt of the Province to-day was equivalent to a $700 mortgage on a $13,500 farm. Surely not a serious matter.

THE SINKING FUND

The Sinking Fund of British Columbia was in better shape than any of its sister Provinces, and to-day while Saskatchewan was paying 5.02, Alberta 5.18, Ontario 5.14 and Manitoba 4.96 to carry their respective debts, British Columbia was only paying 4.61. Mr. Manson defied contradiction of the statement that the present Government had in its whole term of office over exceeded its current revenue by its current expenditure. On the contrary in the last ten years current revenue had exceeded current expenditure by $10,435,000, whereas in the last five years of the Conservative Government current expenditure had exceeded current revenue by no less a sum than $18,300,000. The Financial Post referred to the fact that British Columbia to-day had the greatest purchasing power of any Province in Canada and had displaced the Province of Ontario from the premier position in that respect.

TAXATION

Dealing with taxation, reference was made to the conditions which prevailed in 1917, when the bonds of the Province were deficit bonds and the Province was in an impossible financial position, taxation was temporarily increased, but in the last five years the Government had reduced taxation over and above the establishment of new taxes to such an extent that the burden of taxation to-day was $2,680,000 less per year than if the same rate of taxation still prevailed as existed in 1923. Dr. Tolmie's statement at Courtenay that the rate of taxation had increased by 277 per cent or more was ridiculous. The Doctor was not familiar with the financial history of his own Province, but had confused rate of taxation with increase in revenue. That there had been increase in revenue was gladly admitted, due to the fact that there had been an increase in population of 36 per cent and a magnificent expansion of general industry and payroll.

ROADS

A sound highway policy had been laid down by the Honorable Dr. King and had been carried on by his successor the Honorable Dr. Sutherland. Roads to-day were being built on a scientific engineering basis; a scheme of trunk roads to points in the Province had been mapped out, secondary roads were being constructed to tie into these highways. Without highways the raw resources were valueless. With highways and trails the farmer and lumberman and miner could progress. Main highways were financed by borrowing against the proceeds of the gas tax and the motor vehicles licenses—the users of the roads were paying for them.

FREIGHT RATES

Mr. Manson pointed with pride to the fact that despite an expenditure of $160,000 the Province had been able to procure a reduction in freight rates which had meant in the last six years to the grain growers and the people of British Columbia no less a sum than $31,000,000, and this without jeopardizing the national highways, whose condition had satisfactorily improved.

LEGISLATION

Repeating the policy of the Government—labor contended and capital unafraid—the Legislative record of the last ten years, particularly along social lines was referred to. British Columbia according to Tom Moore, the head of organized labor in Canada, now led all the provinces in this respect. The Workmen's Compensation Act had been greatly liberalized by amendment. The Mothers' Pensions Act had been put upon the Statute Book and $700,000 per year was being paid out for mothers' pensions. British Columbia had led the way in the matter of old age pensions and the Province would pay to the old timers of British Columbia who were in need in the current year—with the assistance of the Dominion Government—approximately half a million dollars. The Legislative record had meant an ameliorating of the conditions in a very great measure for the rank and file of the people of British Columbia.

ADMINISTRATION

The administrative record had been clean. The personal reputation of the Ministers he hoped was beyond reproach. A fifty-year-old fight over the Railway lands in the Peace River block had been brought to a successful conclusion. Sale of the Government's Railway was well under way. Altogether there had been accomplished much of major importance.

LEADERSHIP

Mr. Manson contrasted the peace and harmony which prevailed in the Government ranks. The happy choice of Dr. MacLean, who was proving himself an able and outstanding leader. This as against the turmoil and confusion and internecine warfare of the Opposition camp. He twitted Dr. Tolmie with not playing fair with his own party. His second in command, Mr. Pooley, had been prophesying an election for months and yet Dr. Tolmie had not bothered himself to get into action. Even to-day he was not in the Province of British Columbia. The pistol had been fired and one of the contestants was not even at the starting post.

POLICY

The Kamloops convention had concerned itself chiefly with the bitter struggle over leadership. Its resolutions as to policy were indefinite and quite at random. Not a word was said of the Pacific Great Eastern; not a word was said in regard to many major problems. Canon Hinchliffe had told them at the convention that they would be sorry for some of the resolutions that were being passed.

Mr. Twigg had said "Do not pass these resolutions. The Liberals might steal our platform." Surely a short-sighted conception of public life.

CONCLUSION

In conclusion Mr. Manson suggested to his audience that the Administrative and Legislative record of the Government had been a clean and satisfactory record; that the progress of industry in the Province was unequalled in any of the sister provinces; that the foot of the Government was upon the accelerator and not upon the brake, and he respectfully submitted the directors should be returned.

BOOKLET TOPIC OF CRITICISM

Allan Lyons Says Pamphlet "B.C.'s Progress" Sent to Citizens By Liberal Leaders

Vancouver, June 21.—Charges that the Provincial Publicity Bureau and the office of the King's Printer were being used for political purposes by the Government were voiced by Allan (Gus) Lyons, Conservative, who in the Legislature just dissolved was fourth member for Victoria. Mr. Lyons spent the week-end in Vancouver, and in support of his allegations brought with him a booklet, "British Columbia's Progress," which he declared was being sent broadcast throughout the country to voters.

"These booklets were sent out last week, following the announcement of the election, to persons on the voters' lists," asserted Mr. Lyons. "They contain nothing but political propaganda of the most pronounced type. Some of the figures might be of use for distribution outside of British Columbia at a time other than during a campaign, but even then these figures should be carefully scrutinized.

SAYS HIS ATTENTION CALLED

"The booklets are sent out personally from the office of the Premier, with a printed letter from Dr. MacLean. They were printed by the King's Printer at the expense of the taxpayers, and according to the Premier's letter, the editorial matter was compiled by the Publicity Bureau—again at the public expense. It is the most barefaced instance of the Liberal Party dipping into the public treasury that could well be imagined," said Mr. Lyons. "It must have cost thousands of dollars to produce in the numbers in which it is being circulated. Scores of citizens have called my attention to it, declaring it an outrageous misuse of public money.

"Last session the Government forced through a vote of $35,000 for 'publicity purposes,' and in answer to questions said the sum was for advertising British Columbia abroad. It is easy to see the purpose to which the taxpayers' money has been put by the administration," said Mr. Lyons.

PENSIONERS' ASSOCIATION

At the general meeting of the Canadian Pensioners Association several new members were enrolled. An able address was delivered by W. Turner of the Provincial Government Employment Bureau, "On the Difficulties of Placing Disabled Ex-service Men in Industry." The opinion was expressed by the membership that both the Provincial and Federal Governments could assist effectively towards the solution of the problem of unemployed ex-soldiers by extending the preference in the Civil Service Act still further to disabled ex-service men in appointments in the Government's service.

The next general meeting will be held on Friday, June 22, when it is proposed to discuss the new pension legislation passed by the House of Commons and Senate. All disabled Canadian ex-service men are requested to attend.

ONTARIO WINS SCHOOL CASE

2. To establish that separate school trustees had the right to conduct grades of education similar to high schools and collegiate institutes.

3. A declaration that Roman Catholic school supporters were exempt from rates for the maintenance of continuation schools not conducted by separate school trustees.

4. A judgment against the Province of Ontario for money which the Tiny Township Separate School Trustees claimed was the difference between the amount awarded out of the Legislature's grant for the year 1922 and the amount which would have come to them if effect had been given to a statute which was in effect at the time of Confederation.

CANADIAN COURT RULINGS

This petition was dismissed by Mr. Justice Rose of the Ontario Supreme Court at Toronto. His decision was confirmed by the appellate Division of the Ontario Supreme Court, and a further appeal to the Supreme Court of Canada at Ottawa also was dismissed.

The appellants last December were granted special leave to appeal to the Privy Council and argument was heard for and against at intervals from February 2 to March 8 last, when judgment was reserved.

L. F. Helmuth, K.C., represented the appellants and W. N. Tilley, K.C., acted for the respondents.

IMPORTANCE RECOGNIZED

"Their lordships are fully aware this appeal is among the most important before them from Canada in recent years," declares the judgment. "It will be found to be a question of pure law, turning on the interpretation of the application of the words of the British North America Act, but is none the less a question of far-reaching importance to Canada as a whole, and has given rise to great differences of opinion among judges of the Canadian courts.

HISTORY OF EDUCATION

"To understand its scope it is necessary to have in mind the history of education in Canada."

Proceeding to discuss this, Their Lordships say section 93 of the B.N.A. Act embodies a compromise. Their Lordships are of the opinion that where the head of the Executive Council in Canada is satisfied injustice has been done by the taking away of a right or privilege, which is other than a legal one from a Protestant or Roman Catholic minority in regard to education, he may interfere. But may be those who had to find a new constitution for Canada came to the conclusion that a very difficult situation could be met in no other way than transferring the question from the region of legality to that of administrative fairness, it is remarked.

The judgment goes on especially to cite the Manitoba appeal of Brophy against the Attorney-General in 1895.

SYSTEM DEVELOPED

Before 1867 there were in Canada schools of three classes, common, grammar and separate. After Confederation there came into existence continuation schools, collegiate institutes and high schools, which developed out of the three original kinds just mentioned. The claim of the appellants was that in 1867 Roman Catholics in Upper Canada enjoyed by law the right to establish denominational schools to be conducted by trustees chosen by themselves. It was argued that the Catholics continued to enjoy these autonomous rights, the judgment says, coupled with the consequential right of exemption from taxation for high schools, collegiate institutes and continuation schools, which it was claimed were mere forms of what fell within the scope of the existing separate schools.

Their Lordships say that if such right was really conferred on separate schools the right and title to grants were not upheld by the 1867 act.

Tributes to Memory Of Rev. Dr. W. L. Clay

Regina, June [illegible] stment of one hundred volunteers from the Sabbath schools of the Presbyterian Church in Canada in the next five years to serve in the Christian ministry was endorsed by the General Assembly here yesterday as the most appropirate monument to the memory of Rev. Dr. W. Leslie Clay of Victoria, B.C., who died some months ago during his term as Moderator.

Several addresses of eulogy were delivered by the commissioners in memory of Dr. Clay, who was characterized as a leader, stressing at all times the need for young, able and courageous men for the ministry.

six per cent, but a slightly easier undertone was apparent in time money market.

Many brokers continued to blame the decline on "political uncertainty."

The speculative bubble in Bancitaly Corporation common stock created by world-wide speculation in that issue, was pricked late yesterday in California and New York securities markets and started a flood of selling of other securities which wiped out billions of dollars in quoted values.

Bancitaly common broke $67 a share on the New York curb market to $133, and then rallied to $147. It sold last April as high as $223 a share.

GIANNINI RUMORED DEAD

Except for an obviously top-heavy speculative position, there were no definite developments to explain the sudden and sweeping decline in Bancitaly stock. The violence of the decline led to widespread rumors, however, that A. P. Giannini, founder of the organization and its guiding genius, was dead. These rumors were denied by officials of the corporation here, who stated that Mr. Giannini was due in London to-day from Italy, where he had been spending a vacation.

OFFICIALS ISSUED WARNINGS

James Bacigalupi, president of the corporation who is in San Francisco, commenting on the decline of the stock, said:

"This situation is what we long anticipated, and what Mr. Giannini has constantly warned our stockholders against. That is why he has constantly urged against speculation and advised those who owned stocks to pay up and those who could not afford to pay up in full, to keep out. Those stockholders who have heeded his advice need have no fear about the future. There has been no change in our set up or condition, and the prospects are as bright as ever."

SMALL BUYERS CAUSED RISE

Speculation in Bancitaly stock has been increasing steadily for more than a year. Much of the buying is reported to have come from persons of relatively small means. It has been a common saying in Wall Street that every bootblack and fruitstand proprietor in the United States and Canada owned Bancitaly stock. Leading brokerage houses for some time have refused to buy or sell the stock on margin, requiring full payment. A. P. Giannini himself recently was reported to have circularized banks requesting them not to make loans on the stock. Loans have been made, however, by a number of second rate financial companies, which are reported to have demanded 50 per cent margin and a commission one per cent a month above the regular interest rate. Much of the selling is reported to have come from these sources.

INDIA FLIGHT

London, June 12.—Capt. C. Barnard, pilot for the sixty-two-year-old Duchess of Bedford on her flight to India, telegraphed The London Daily Express last night that the aeroplane Princess Xenia had arrived at Aleppo at 4 p.m. Monday. He said the plane had made a splendid nonstop flight from Sofia, Bulgaria.

EXPERTS DIFFER ON ENGINEERING METHODS CHOSEN

Appeal Hearing of Georgia Construction vs. P.G.E. Railway Continues

The choice of methods by which an engineer would remove material from a cut on a gradient was cited as one of the points of difference between parties in a resumption of the hearing of the appeal of the Georgia Construction Company versus the Pacific Great Eastern Railway in the Appeal Court to-day. The railway is appealing a judgment of some $60,000 in favor of the contractors, over work done at Mile 13.7 on the P.G.E.

The testimony of experts cited by E. C. Mayers, counsel for the railway, this morning was to the effect that the material taken from the cut should have been removed from the south end of the cut, or downhill. By tunneling and trapping, it was stated, it would have been possible to remove between 1,000 and 1,200 yards of material a day from the cut, or to complete the work in from 270 to 265 days. The time limit on the contract had been a year, and the contractors had taken eighteen months, argued Mr. Mayers.

Evidence quoted by witnesses for the respondents at the lower courts, was to the effect that the removal of the material by trapping from the south end would have been impractiable by reason of the existence of seventy-five per cent of hard pan in the faces to be cut. The hard pan would not "run," and the alternative method of taking the material out by way of the north end had been resorted to in the end. From this sprang the dispute in which the railway withheld the final certificate on the work, and the contractor started suit for $50,503 for overhaul costs.

Experienced engineering witnesses for the railroad had stated that hard pan lent itself well to the method indicated by the railway's engineers, and the material could have been made to "run" in the traps by blasting, Mr. Mayers argued.

The railway's method had involved a short haul and cable dump system, and that taken by the contractors a long haul with excess hauls in the computation of costs. The choice of method, under the contract, rested with the railway engineer, contended Mr. Mayers.

The hearing resumed after the luncheon recess, with J. W. de B. Farris, K.C., counsel for the respondents yet to be stated. The appeal is expected to last all day to-morrow.

POLICE SAID TOWN WAS OPEN

not seem strong enough to go after the men. He was a goodn decent fellow, but did not understand police work. He had not been through all the branches."

"Was he infruenced by others, meaning particularly the mayor?" asked Mr. MacNeill.

"He was," replied McLaughlin.

"Anyone else?"

"That is all I know."

YESTERDAY'S EVIDENCE

Absolute denial that he had ever received money from any source for protection or to slacken his activity, or that he had ever given instructions to favor any particular places, was made by Detective Sergeant George MacLaughlin at yesterday afternoon's session of the inquiry.

During the time he was acting-inspector, he said, 873 raids had been conducted by his department, as a result of which $103,000 was received by the city in fines and bail.

Possibility that the inquiry may close this week was intimated when Commissioner R. S. Lennie, in reply to a request by G. H. Cowan, K.C., that sessions open at 10.30 instead of 10 a.m., remarked that it was desired to close proceedings this week if possible.

NEW LEGATION AT TOKIO SOON

CANADA IS INTERPRETER

As for Canadian Legations, said Premier King, a precedent already had been established. Canada now had a Legation at Washington and Paris. The United States was Canada's nearest neighbor on the south and Canada was now represented there. France was the nearer neighbor of the Dominion on the east and Canada had a represeentative at Paris. Japan was the nearest neighbor of Canada on the west, and it was proposed Canada should be represented in Tokio.

Canada was in a key position between these great powers and the Dominion might use its position and its acquaintance with them to act as a sort of an interpreter between them, said Mr. King.

AIDS EMPIRE UNITY

Nothing in the proposal savored of an effort to gain independence from the British Empire, said Mr. King. In fact, he felt action along these lines would help to maintain Canada's relations with the other parts of the Empire. The old idea of centralized control of the Empire had given way to the idea of joint control. Canada's relations with the Orient were increasing. It was all important for the unity of the Empire that there should be someone at Tokio who understood the Canadian situation.

This was not independence, said the Prime Minister, but self-dependence. Apparently the members opposite wanted the British taxpayers to pay the whole cost of Canada's foreign business.

QUOTES BALDWIN

Canada in domestic and in external affairs was a sovereign power and as an authority for that he proposed to quote for the rest of his days Right Hon. Stanley Baldwin, Prime Minister of Great Britain.

Mr. King then read from Mr. Baldwin's book, "Our Inheritance," which included some Canadian addresses.

One speech made by Premier Baldwin in Ottawa referred to the Imperial Conference report which mentioned the Empire being made up of autonomous communities in no way subordinate one to the other.

BENNETT'S VIEW

Hon. R. B. Bennett, Conservative leader, said it was necessary and important there should be only one foreign policy for the whole Empire. How could the life of the British Empire be maintained if Great Britain had one foreign policy, Australia another and Canada a third? Partnership must speak as a unit, he said.

An anti-Japanese speech made earlier in the session brought a rebuke from Premier King during the discussion.

"Honorable members will recall a speech made in the House in the course of the debate on external affairs, in which a friendly nation, to my mind, had reason to feel it had been insulted, at least indirectly, by the remarks of a certain honorable gentleman," Premier King stated.

"I will not say more than that. The remarks, however, I may observe, were made in application to people of the Orient.

SPEAKS GREAT DEAL

"Those of us who are assembled here know how easily the honorable gentleman who spoke rolls off some of his various remarks and we know how much to discount this language. But words of the character to which I refer sent across the Pacific and repeated in another country as coming from one who has not only been mayor of a great city for seven years or more in succession, but also a member of this Parliament for several years, are likely to assume a significance in the Orient which they do not begin to assume here. How are you going to explain to the Oriental people or to any people the significance of many such public remarks which do more mischief in international relations than anything else? Yet a thing of that sort can be explained in a moment, through personal contact where it could not be explained by weeks of correspondence."

NEW PLANS FOR CHURCH BOARD

Regina, June 12—Recommendations involving radical changes in the administrative structure of the Presbyterian Church in Canada as contained in a draft report presented by Rev. D. R. Drummond of Hamilton, Ont., to the General Assembly of the church here yesterday resulted in the tabling of the resignations of members of the present board of administration attending the meeting. The resignations were tabled by G. S. McDonald of Toronto, who explained that the members were taking that course in order that they could enter into the discussion of the issues involved, freely and without prejudice.

No action was taken on the matter, pending full consideration of the reports submitted by the special committee on organization and co-ordination of the administrative board.

Recommendations in both reports were heard, but action was deferred until to-day.

SUGGESTIONS MADE

The recommendations of the committee were:

That the general board be formed of not more than forty members, composed of ministers and elders, with an executive committee of fifteen members, appointed by the General Assembly. Representations would be on the following basis:

Ex officio, three members; ministers and elders, nominated by the Synod, sixteen; lay members, chosen by the Assembly, eleven; and members of administrative boards, ten.

It was proposed that a chairman be named by the General Assembly, who meantime should be a layman.

DUTIES OF BOARD

The duties of the board were set forth in the following proposed regulations:

(a) The general board would be subject to the authority of the General Assembly and would, within the rules and regulations of the various departments, take oversight and control of the financial affairs of the church:

(b) It would co-ordinate the activities of the existing boards, devise and suggest to the General Assembly policies making for the unity and efficiency of all departments;

(c) Have responsibility for securing the revenue for the missionary, education and benevolent work of the church, as set forth in the budget;

(d) Act as the General Assembly's committe in emergencies, and generally assume the responsibilities shouldered by the present board of adiminstration.

POST SESSION AIR IN OTTAWA

LAST DAYS CROWDED

Prorogation came shortly before six o'clock last evening as the culmination of several crowded days in the Commons.

The last day brought no fewer than three amendments to supply, all of which fell by the way.

Finally the supply bill was given third reading and was sent to the Senate, while the Commons took a brief rest. It was passed and returned from the Senate after the lapse of half an hour, and the Commons was summoned to the upper chamber, where the Governor-General read the speech from the throne and the session was at an end.

SPEECH FROM THRONE

The Speech from the Throne ending the session, as read by Viscount Willingdon, Governor-General, was as follows:

"Honorable Members of the Senate:

"Members of the House of Commons:

"It is a source of special satisfaction to note that the public accounts of the fiscal year recently ended disclose a substantial surplus, and that you have been able to effect a further reduction in taxation.

"The trade of our country continues to expand. It is anticipated the volume of foreign trade will reveal a further increase as a result of the trade agreements just concluded."

presidency of the United States, the Republican National Convention began here to-day with tribute to its retiring leader which will live as a milestone in party history.

The name with which the Republican leaders have conjured through months of perplexity was thrown in the opening hours of the convention by the temporary chairman and keynote speech of Senator Fess of Ohio. His keynote speech described the President as "the greatest personal and political force in the world to-day."

"After five years and seven months of leadership in our nation," said the Ohio speaker, "he leaves office by his own fiat, which appears to be final and is so interpreted by many of his friends in spite of the fact that his nomination and election would be a foregone conclusion did he not forbid."

In these words the senator stated a conclusion as to the positive nature of Mr. Coolidge's renunciation already adopted by such other leaders as Secretary Mellon and Chairman Butler of the National Committee, both of whom had joined the swelling Hoover chorus but a few hours before.

Senator Fess saved his tribute to the President until the very end of a long speech, which otherwise was an old-fashioned Republican keynote, giving the greatest attention to prosperity and peace and promising sound financing and a programme of farm relief giving the greatest benefits possible, "short of unsound proposals of Government stimulation of artificial remedies which in the end may only add to our problems."

TO END THURSDAY

This speech and a few other opening preliminaries took up the whole of the opening day's session. The leaders hope for an adjournment by Thursday night.

THE SESSION

ONE OBVIOUS RESULT OF THE SESsion of Parliament which came to an end at Ottawa last night is the increased strength of the Government of Mr. Mackenzie King. At no time was it in danger of losing any of the commanding support which it controls. It is true that the session was not marked by very much outstanding legislation; but it would be safe to say that not for some years have so many important subjects been discussed in such an exhaustive manner as they have been discussed on this occasion.

Those who expected Hon. R. B. Bennett to strike out on a new path in his leadership of the opposition must have been disappointed. He followed that from which Mr. Meighen seldom deviated, a path along which is strewn the wreckage of the hopes of the Conservative Party, hopes which have been based upon high tariffs, special privilege, and opposition to all legislation intended to benefit the plain people. The Canadian people, of course, are wide awake. They made their voice heard in the general election of 1926. They refused to listen to the disciples of blue ruin. They have seen how the country has progressed in the meantime. That prosperous condition explains one of the reasons why the present Administration at Ottawa has emerged from its second session stronger than ever—a brand new opposition leader notwithstanding.

Of the measures passed British Columbia was particularly interested in the Act which prohibits the private individual from importing liquor into any province in which a system of government control is in operation. The provisions of this law are not new. They had been debated and approved by the House of Commons on three previous occasions, but the majority in the Senate rejected the bill each time. It had not the effrontery to deal with it in such a summary manner on this occasion, although it did attempt to destroy the principle of the measure by amending it so as to permit the importation of liquor in quantities of not more than half a gallon. This action was promptly followed by strong protests from the government-control provinces—whose representatives, it will be remembered, stood solidly behind Attorney-General Manson when he asked for their support in this regard at the Dominion-provincial conference last Fall—and the Upper Chamber withdrew its amendment.

Of special interest to returned men and the dependents of former members of the Canadian Expeditionary Force are the amendments to the Pensions Act. It had been recognized for some time past that no hard and fast regulation could be expected to meet all the circumstances which beset the pensioner with long-standing or recurrent disabilities. On that account Hon. J. H. King, the minister who presides over what in future will be called the Department of Pensions and National Health, has been instrumental in remedying these and other anomalies which the investigation he conducted had revealed.

Nobody expects a session of the Dominion Parliament to pass into the records without a debate on status or imperial relations. The one just closed was no exception from the general rule. Some members still would have Canada remain in leading strings, but the net result of all such discussions is fresh emphasis of the fact that this country is no longer a colony. Evidence of this is reflected in the votes for the maintenance of our representative in Washington and for the appointment of ministers to Paris and Tokio.

Although some action was expected to be taken with regard to the St. Lawrence waterway project, the matter has been left in abeyance for the time being. All the correspondence and the international committee's report now have been published and the country ought to be aware of what the undertaking means, what it will cost, and what benefits the Canadian people as a whole will derive from it when it shall have been completed. Sooner or later Canada will have to make up her mind to accept her part of the obligation which the project will entail.

REGULATING MOTOR-CARS

NO DOUBT MANY MISTAKES ARE made by the authorities in drafting regulations for the control of motor-car traffic. Some of these regulations may be impracticable, and all of them may subject motorists to considerable inconvenience. But we must remember that the potentiality of the motor-car for injury to human life is second only to that of a major epidemic. A motor-car or truck driven by a reckless or incompetent driver is more dangerous to human life than a gun in the hands of a child. Also, a motor vehicle which cannot be easily and promptly controlled is a formidable public menace. A mere tap from it can kill the person who happens to be in its way, and the victim may have more right to be on the spot where he or she is struck than the motor-car.

Whether the recent regulation governing brakes is workable or effective or not, the authorities cannot make regulations too drastic where human life is at stake. All the money involved in the production of all the motor-cars in the world cannot restore the humblest life lost on account of a defective car or a reckless or incompetent driver. Apart from all this, it is now being realized by the authorities of not only this Province but other countries that unless they control the motor traffic as rigorously as they control anything else which endangers the public safety, the public will feel inclined to take the law into its own hands. And in that case a situation would arise which would undermine our whole system of law enforcement. This actually happened in some places on this continent with the result that the authorities were compelled to adopt and enforce measures in comparison with which those in operation in this Province are very mild.

There have been too many serious accidents arising out of motor traffic in British Columbia which never should have occurred, and it is the duty of the authorities to take every possible step to limit them to the lowest number. In this, of course, they are bound to meet with criticism, and hear a lot of nonsense about the sacred liberty of the subject, Magna Charta and the stability of the Empire, but they should not be influenced by fustian of that sort and should bear in mind that their duty is to protect at all costs human life whenever it is endangered, whether by the motor traffic, epidemic, or anything else. With that vital purpose in view whatever mistakes they make will be on the right side.

THAT OUNCE OF PREVENTION

IN AN ADDRESS TO THE CANADIAN Club on Saturday Dr. Joseph C. Bloodgood said that the informed person who acts immediately upon correct information has sixty per cent. of a chance of a cure from attack by cancer, while the uninformed person, ignorant of the danger, has only a ten per cent. chance. On this account this world-famed surgeon would spend millions on examination in order that the suspect could be warned and treated in time.

There are one or two diseases to which human flesh is heir that seem to have baffled the medical profession to date. Cancer is one of them. Large sums have been spent on research. Some of the world's richest men have given millions of dollars to the cause; a good deal of progress no doubt has been made. But the world has yet to hear the definite and reliable announcement that medical science has triumphed over the cause of this dreaded malady, and that a cure has been discovered. We may assume that it will come in time. In the meantime, however, there is much point in Dr. Bloodgood's advice. Have funds available for expert examination of the suspect as soon as the least cause for alarm manifests itself.

It is unfortunate that the question of public health, the need for education along preventive lines, is of very little interest to the average individual as long as his or her health is good. Only when sickness invades the home is it realized that the ounce of prevention is better than all the cure. Parliaments are pretty much the same the world over. Bodies engaged in the transaction of the public's business find it a good deal more interesting to discuss the building of roads and railways and other projects than they do in discussing ways and means of safeguarding the health of the people. Only when medical men meet, as the British Columbia Medical Association is meeting in Victoria to-day, is particular emphasis given to this important aspect.

WHAT OTHER PAPERS SAY

OFFICIAL MURDER

From The New York Sun

Any motorist driving rapidly along a country road is likely to arouse suspicion in the breast of a prohibition enforcement official. To suppose that one of these underlings should have discretionary power to shoot at one who did not mark, or perhaps did not even hear, a command to halt is monstrous. Whatever euphonious names may be contrived to conceal the truth, a killing under such circumstances is murder. Prompt and condign punishment should be imposed whenever such a thing takes place.

NOW FOR MISSISSIPPI CONTROL

From The Boston Transcript

President Coolidge has signed the Mississippi flood relief bill. It is a mistake to suppose that it is satisfactory to him. He has, however, cut out of it some of its worst features. Relief, prevention as far as possible of future calamities, was certainly due. Every consideration of public duty and future safety called for legislation on the subject. The President has simply done his best with the situation. He did not handle it with hammer and tongs. He labored fairly with Congress. He has at least eliminated the likelihood of wasteful administration of the expenditure authorized, and obtained from Congress such legislation in the matter as should make the appropriations tell with the utmost degree of economy in management. A civilian chief engineer, working in connection with the chief of army engineers and the president of the Mississippi River Commission, will constitute a board that, under the authority of the President of the United States, should prove a check on reckless expenditure. This is likely to turn out to be a saving clause in the enactment. And, owing to his efforts, the Federal Government is saved from a provision which would have made the United States liable for damages.

The President has been unable to prevent the assessment of practically the entire cost of the improvement on the Federal Government. To this extent he has lost out in his contention regarding the matter.

INITIAL SUIT BIDS

It is perfectly safe to name a four-card suit in an initial bid, if, of course, the remainder of the hand contains sufficient strength. The total hand should carry at least 2¼ quick tricks, one of which should be in the bidding suit.

The following are illustrations of sound four-card suit bids:

1—Bid one spade—Spades A K X X; hearts J X X X; diamonds A X X X; clubs X.

2—Bid one heart—Spades J X X; hearts A K Q X; diamonds Q X; clubs X X X X.

3—Bid one diamond—Spades X X; hearts K Q X; diamonds K Q J 10; clubs X X X X.

4—Bid one spade—Spades A Q 10 X; hearts X X; diamonds A X X X; clubs X X X.

5—Bid one heart—Spades Q X X; hearts A K J 10; diamonds X X; clubs X X X X.

Length without any strength in the hand does not justify an initial bid. You must hold at least two quick tricks to make a bid, and any initial bid that is made with less strength may, and usually does, deceive your partner. When you make an initial bid, your partner believes you have two quick tricks, and will advance the bid for you, relying on it, with a result that may be ruinous. The probabilities are against you if you bid on less.

Length alone may justify a secondary bid, but not an initial bid.

The following are illustrations of hands that you should not bid initially, holding less than two quick tricks

1—Spades A J X X X X X; hearts J X; diamonds J X; clubs Q X.

2—Spades X X; hearts K X X X X X X X; diamonds X; clubs X X.

3—Spades K Q; hearts Q X X X X X X; diamonds X X; clubs X X.

4—Spades Q X X; hearts K Q X X X X; diamonds X X; clubs Q X.

5—Spades K J 10 X X X X; hearts X X; diamonds J X; clubs X X.

SAANICH SKYLARKS

To the Editor:—Honor to whom honor is due—the Natural History Society of British Columbia. On a visit to my old home near Keating, I was agreeably surprised to find skylarks in full possession, singing their hearts out. By the way, since the advent of the strawberry, Saanich has lost its name to Keating. Why? The berries are not all grown just in that district. I trust the larks will establish its old name again.

CONSERVATIVE ORGANIZATION

To the Editor:—In the issue of The Colonist of Sunday a correspondent, A. R. Colby, refers to a circular letter issued by the Conservative reorganization committee, which letter admonishes Conservatives not to pledge their support to any machine politicians pending the convention. I am the recipient of one of these notices which I believe to be very timely and sensible. No doubt the committee refered to has profited by past experiences when in Oak Bay and other districts meetings were held at the most unusual hours and places without proper or any notice in an attempt by the machine politicians to prevent the large body of Conservatives from having a voice in the selection of delegates. It will be remembered that this action was condemned and the proceedings nullified by the British Columbia Conservative Association. It is now common knowledge that the four Conservative members for Victoria, aided by their chief organizer, Capt. Montague D. Harbord, have already selected fifty delegates from each ward, thereby rendering the ward meetings of the coming week an absolute farce. Right-thinking Conservatives cannot but approve of the action of the reorganization committee and turn out to these meetings determined to see that the competition is clean and fair, and that each candidate gets a square deal.

The present Conservative members have not created a distinguished political record during the past number of years, and if in consequence they suffer a lack of enthusiastic support, that does not warrant such tactics on the part of the machine which supports them. Mr. Colby was ill-advised to publish the fact that a house cleaning process is very evidently under way, but since he has brought out the soiled linen, it may as well be thoroughly washed.

NATIVE SON.

WEST COAST ROAD

To the Editor:—I have recently become a regular subscriber to your valuable paper, and in looking over a recent issue I notice an article on the West Coast Road, in which Mr. Carmichael has considerable to say with refernce to its usefulness, etc.

Now, Mr. Editor, rather than allow a very great number of people, including yourself and Mr. Carmichael, to acquire an erroneous impression, I would advise your readers to take a map of Vancouver Island and study its topography and geography thoroughly, note also the location of its historical points, or better still, take an extended trip up the West Coast to Quatsino. Visit the different timber and mining areas and pay particular attention to the location of the majority of the big fish refineries and packing plants, and also note the millions of dollars invested north of Barclay Sound, and the revenue derived therefrom by our Provincial Government, then try and reckon just approximately what that revenue amounts to per annum, that is if you can glean that information—then observe what the pioneers in that northern district have received in return. This latter part will not, I venture to say, be very difficult to sum up. Then compare this productive and revenue-producing area with that over which the so-called West Road is being built. There is not a shadow of a doubt as to what your thoughts will be, and I have no hesitation in saying that you will ask yourself or perhaps someone else why a road is being pushed along that barren coast towards Port Renfrew, when a district farther north is calling out for a means of egress and ingress at a fraction of the sum that it will take to build a road north from Victoria.

If you have not already grasped the import of this letter allow me to proceed to enlighten you.

A glance at the map of Vancouver Island will show you that the natural terminus of the West Coast road is the little township of Tofino.

Upwards of thirty years ago a road from this point was commenced in a southerly direction and for a number of years under the old Conservative regime its construction acted as a sort of annual handout to the settlers of the district in the form of a meal-ticket, and until recently this road only extended about two miles from the Tofino end. During the past three years, I believe, and through the representations of the Good Roads League and the efforts of our member Major Burde, the Government have been persuaded to spend $10,000 annually in clearing a right-of-way from Tofino to Long Beach south and from Ucluelet to Long Beach north. This right-of-way was completed last year, but no further work is being done, and the road is being allowed to return to bush.

It is proposed to extend this road from the present Sproat Lake end of the Alberni Sproat Lake road up Taylor River thence to Elk River, now known as Kennedy River, along the shore of Kennedy Lake, thereby providing a means of communication to that part of the Island Coast where it would be an invaluable asset to everyone concerned on Vancouver Island. It would provide an opening to a wonderland of beauty, where as a holiday resort the West Coast would rival that of any other district in the world, with its lakes, fishing streams, game areas of all sorts, bathing beaches, sheltered bays and coves, islands by the thousand, hot springs gushing out of the rocks, as yet unfrequented and practically unknown. The settlers and people of the district would not be tied to the Maquinna's tri-monthly service, or subject to a long stretch of bad water where passengers invariably suffer from a violent attack of mal-de-mer.

The West Coast of Vancouver Island will soon have to be reckoned with as a centre of industry, and that centre of industry cannot very well be reached by extending a West Coast road from Victoria except at an unheard-of expense to the country. The only obvious outlet is the route already described. A road from Victoria north is perhaps a much desired thing as far as Victoria is concerned, but I would advise the people of that city to be a little more far-sighted and demand also that the road be pushed and completed from Alberni to Tofino and thereby share the benefits accruing therefrom with other centres.

A WEST COAST ADVOCATE.
Port Alberni, June 5, 1928.

JOTS FROM GEOGRAPHY

BOTTOMLESS ASPHALT LAKE, of Trinidad, covers an area of 114 acres. It is one of nature's strangest works. Each day the asphalt is dug from the semi-solid, ever-moving lake surface, and each night fresh asphalt is pushed up from below to fill the gap. The depth of the lake cannot be measured, and its supply is ceaseless.

E. & N. HEAD WILL RETIRE NEXT MONTH

H. E. Beasley to Relinquish Duties as General Superintendent on July 1

Has Splendid Record of Forty-seven Years of Railway Service in Canada

After forty-seven years of intimate connection with railroading in Canada, H. E. Beasley, general superintendent of the Esquimalt and Nanaimo Railway, will retire from active service at the end of this month, according to an announcement made yesterday afternoon by D. C. Coleman, vice-president of the Canadian Pacific Railway, western lines and president of the Esquimalt and Nanaimo Railway.

Mr. Beasley will be elected a director of the Esquimalt and Nanaimo Railway Company, it was also announced. His successor as general superintendent of the line will be named within a few days.

Commenting upon Mr. Beasley's retirement Mr. Coleman yesterday said:

"After forty-three years of active work, he desires to spend his remaining days in comparative leisure, and proposes to give up his present duties on July 1. Mr. Beasley throughout his long connection with the company has displayed diligence, devotion and ability, and he enjoys the respect and regard of all his associates and of the executive of the company. In order that his knowledge and experience may be available when required, he will be elected a director of the Esquimalt and Nanaimo Railway Company."

FORTY-FIVES YEARS WITH C.P.R.

Forty-five years of Mr. Beasley's railway service in Canada have been with the Canadian Pacific Railway, which firm he became connected with in August, 1883. Previous to that time he was employed in the office of the assistant engineer of the central division of the old Grand Trunk Railroad, which firm he entered in April, 1881, serving successively as stenographer, rodman and chainman.

Mr. Beasley later accepted the post of secretary and chief clerk to the general superintendent of the Manitoba and Northwestern Railway at Portage La Prairie; this line being taken over by the Canadian Pacific Railway.

CONSTRUCTION

Mr. Beasley was actively connected with construction work on the Canadian Pacific Railway during this period. He entered the office of the superintendent of construction on the Lake Superior section in July, 1885, remaining there until the following year.

Three years later when the late Richard Marpole was appointed superintendent of construction and operation on the Pacific Division, Mr. Beasley was invited to come to British Columbia and performed important duties during the construction of the railway through the mountains. He served as clerk assistant to the superintendent at first, later taking the post of assistant superintendent. In 1897 he was transferred to the Kootenay section, remaining in Nelson for three years, when he was in charge of construction and operation on all lines south of Arrowhead.

WITH PRESIDENT

In February, 1900, Mr. Beasley was invited to take charge of the office of the newly-appointed president, Sir Thomas Shaughnessy, in Montreal. The following year an opportunity was presented to return to British Columbia, and Mr. Beasley came West again as superintendent of lines from Vancouver, East to Kamloops. During his period in this office, the Lulu Island and Nicola branches were laid and operation started.

It was in May, 1908, that Mr. Beasley received the appointment as general superintendent of the Esquimalt and Nanaimo Railway and his life since that time has been closely associated with the development of the Island line. During Mr. Beasley's tenure of office with the Esquimalt and Nanaimo Railway, the Victoria-Wellington line has been reconstructed, new terminals have been built in Victoria, construction has been carried out on the branches to Port Alberni, Parksville and Courtenay and logging lines to Lake Cowichan, Osborne Bay and Great Central Lake have been laid and put into operation.

WELL KNOWN

Through his long association with the Canadian Pacific Railway in widely separated parts of Canada, Mr. Beasley is well-known among the railroad officials of the Dominion, all of whom have the highest praise for his devotion to service and diligence. His retirement from active business will mean a distinct loss to the railway world, although he is to be still connected with the Island line as a director.

Sayward

Sayward, June 12.—The Sayward Women's Institute held their regular monthly meeting on Thursday afternoon last at the Community Hall.

Vice-president Mrs. J. B. Howes, presided. The business of the meeting included a most interesting report, delivered by the delegate to the conference of Vancouver Island Women's Institutes held at Duncan last month, Mrs. J. Duncan, to whom a hearty vote of thanks was accorded.

It was decided to have two emergency stretchers made locally. The picnic to be held on July 1 came up for discussion and representatives were appointed to meet the Native Sons to make arrangements for same, $10 being donated towards the expenses. The question of providing ice cream being taken up, resulted in the decision to purchase an ice cream freezer. Refreshments were provided by Mesdames J. H. Long and M. Skogan, who also served afternoon tea, after a very pleasant meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Dyer left Sayward last Monday for Vancouver, after receipt of an urgent message from the General Hospital, their son Tommy having had a relapse necessitating an immediate operation.

PROTESTS ON CREMATORIUM

Woodward Proposal Before Council Raises a Storm of Protest

Council Resolution Favoring Ross Bay Site Withheld

Stating that the Anglican Synod had endorsed the desire of the Cremation Society to place the proposed crematorium on a site owned by the Synod in Ross Bay Cemetery, Alderman E. S. Woodward drew a hornets nest about his ears before the City Council last night.

Mr. Woodward asked the council to pass a resolution saying the city had no objection to the location of the crematorium in Ross Bay Cemetery on the land proposed. This, he said, would aid an application to be made to the Provincial Government for a permit to proceed with the work at the site suggested.

Alderman Woodward moved that the City Council go on record to that effect, securing the support of Alderman H. O. Litchfield as a seconder. The issue was tabled for a week for further study, the motion meanwhile being defeated by a vote of nine to one. Considerable debate preceded this action. Alderman John Worthington was first on his feet in response to the question:

Alderman Worthington—We cannot rush this thing through like that without consulting the wishes of the people. There are many who live near the cemetery, and they may not wish to have a crematorium built there.

Alderman Woodward—Well, gentlemen, if you turn this down, it is almost inevitable that we will proceed with the location we have selected on Topaz Avenue, and you have heard what is being said against that site.

Alderman William Marchant—I am sure there would be many contrary opinions to the choice of Ross Bay. The Anglicans are only one demonination of many, and all may not agree. While personally I have no objection to the question of cremation, there may be many who feel otherwise about it, and Ross Bay was definitely established as a burial ground for all time. The ground has been laid aside by the will of the people for that use, and I, for one, would not like to change it, unless I were assured that there was no objection to such a course.

Alderman James Adam—I think so too.

Alderman Woodward — Alderman Marchant's objections would apply equally at Royal Oak Burial Park. We are told that we may not place the crematorium inside a cemetery, nor outside a cemetery. Then where are we to go?

Alderman Adam—It is not wanted anywhere, apparently.

Alderman Woodward—On the contrary, there are large numbers of people who have signified a wish for the establishment of a crematorium. Such people as His Honor the Lieutenant-Governor, the Bishop, the Archbishop, the Dean and many prominent business men are members of the society, though they have taken no part in the application to be made. Alderman Adam has done nothing but block this thing from the start, and he has never made any constructive contribution to the debate.

Alderman Adam was on his feet on the instant. The alderman, he said, was "barking up the wrong tree." He would stand for no such assertion. What he thought was that the crematorium should not be placed inside the city at all, but should be put at Royal Oak. To say that he had made no constructive suggestion on the matter was incorrect, continued Alderman Adam, who asked for a retraction.

Acting Mayor P. R. Brown restored order after a exchange of words between Aldermen Woodward and Adam as to what had been said.

The council had no right to pass any resolution agreeing to the Woodward proposal without a direct reference to the people, stated Alderman Adam, movong a week's hoist to the proposal. If a referendum were taken the people would defeat it, he said, and without authority the council had no business to proceed to endorse the choice of a site in Ross Bay Cemetery.

On the vote on the amendment to table the question for a week, Acting Mayor P. R. Brown, Aldermen R. A. C. Dewar, William Marchant, J. L. Mara, John Harvey, John Worthington, James Adam and J. B. Clearihue voted in favor of the delay, and Aldermen E. S. Woodward and H. O. Litchfield against it.

Cute in a Baby—Awful at Three —and it's Dangerous—

by Ruth Brittain

Thumb sucking does look sweet in a baby, but it is disgusting in the three-year-old and sometimes it hangs on until fifteen or sixteen! The habit may cause an ill-formed mouth or induce adenoids; and it always interferes with digestion. Pining the sleeve over the hand; attaching mittens, or putting on cardboard cuffs, which prevent bending the arms at the elbows, are some of the ways to stop the habit.

Another bad habit—irregularity in bowel action—is responsible for weak bowels and constipation in babies. Give the tiny bowels an opportunity to act at regular periods each day. If they don't act at first, a little Fletcher's Castoria will soon regulate them. Every mother should keep a bottle of it handy to use in case of colic, cholera, diarrhea, gas on stomach and bowels, constipation, loss of sleep, or when baby is cross and feverish. Its gentle influence over baby's system enables him to get full nourishment from his food, helps him gain, strengthens his bowels.

Castoria is purely vegetable and harmless—the recipe is on the wrapper. Physicians have prescribed it for over 30 years. With each package, you get a valuable book on Motherhood. Look for Chas. H. Fletcher's signature on the wrapper so you'll get the genuine.

European Rotary Leaders Are Visiting Canada and U.S.

Montreal, June 12.—"Rotary can do much to foster friendly feelings between nations and seven days on board ships have show very clearly that all that is necessary is for us to get together in friendly intercourse in order that we may understand one another more fully. If Rotary can do this, it will be a great step toward international understanding and peace."

These words were used last night by Dr. Thomas Stephenson, Edinburgh, president of Rotary Internaltonal in the British Isles, when he arrived aboard the liner Albertic, with the biggest Rotary delegation ever to land on the North American continent.

The party, numbering 250 and representing fourteen different countries in Europe, is en route to the nineteenth International Rotary convention to be held in Minneaolis.

UNWRAPPED BREAD OBJECTED TO BY COUNCIL WOMEN

Local Council Members Discuss Dangers of Food Exposed For Sale

Complaint of the widespread practice by shoppers of touching exposed foodstuffs, such as bread and fruit, with the suggestion that storekeepers might well display cards to the effect "Please Do Not Handle" was made at the monthly meeting of the Local Council of Women yesterday afternoon. Miss Crease presided.

The discussion also brought out the fact that British Columbia was practically the only province in which the wrapping of bread for sale was not enforced, several speakers pointing out the danger of contamination through unwrapped bread. Both matters were brought to the attention of the legislative committee, Mrs. H. Crocker, who will look into the question and report at the next meeting.

PROVINCIAL MEETING

Mrs. Llewellyn Thomas gave a most comprehensive and interesting report of the recent provincial meeting, touching upon the various reforms effected by the local councils, and some of the problems facing them. These included the punishment of drug traffickers, the elimination of gambling devices and the shortening of the duration of racing, the legalization of the term "Canadian" in the census returns, and the compulsory inclusion of a certain proportion of women in all cases involving women and children, and state health insurance.

Mrs. Wilson gave a report of the committee appointed to look into the proposed exhibit at the Canadian National Exhibition, Toronto, and after much discussion as to ways and means it was decided to waive local participation this year.

ARMISTICE SERVICE

A letter from the Armistice Day Committee of Ottawa concerning a brochure containing a proposed uniform order of service for Armistice Day in Canada was received and filed. Mrs. Littler, treasurer, presented a financial statement showing that after the payment of $44 to the Provincial Council, a balance of $61.18 was left.

Members were reminded of the silver tea to be given at the Y.W.C.A. on Friday to raise the "Y" allocation for the Local Council and the League of Nations. Miss Crease also called attention to the coming visit of Sir Frederick Truby King, who has been asked to address the council at a date to be announced later.

KING'S DAUGHTERS OPEN CONVENTION

Dominion President Reports 3,000 Members in Canada

Ottawa, June 12.—With the presentation of reports the twelfth triennial convention of the Canadian branch of the King's Daughters and Sons opened here yesterday. Mrs. Asa Gordon, Ottawa, Dominion president, announced in her annual report that the order now had 3,000 members throughout Canada.

Miss M. L. Ross, Vancouver, honorary Dominion secretary, reported on the work of the organization in British Columbia. She said there were twenty-five circles in the Province.

Garden Party At Bishop's Close For Cathedral Fund

The beautiful old gardens at Bishop's Close, with its tree-girt lawns and pretty flower beds, will be the scene of a garden party to-morrow afternoon, by which the Women's Parish Guild hope to raise funds towards their second donation of $1,000 to the Narthex of the new Cathedral.

The natural attractions of the gardens will be supplemented by a delightful programme of dances by the pupils of Mrs. Dorothy Wilson of the Russian Ballet School. There will also be two tables of fancywork and tree bearing gifts will offer special attraction for the children.

Afternoon tea and ice cream will be served on the lawn. Mrs. Duncan Ross, president of the guild, is acting as general convener, assisted by a bevy of capable committees.

Esquimalt I.O.D.E. Aids Local Causes

The members of the Esquimalt Chapter, I.O.D.E., held their last monthly meeting before the Summer vacation yesterday afternoon at "Hillhaven," the residence of the regent, Mrs. C. P. Hill. Correspondence included letters of thanks for a donation towards the reconditioning of a hall for the use of scouts and cubs of Esquimalt, and from St. Paul's Garrison Church for the donation of a shelf and brass vases for flowers for the memorial shrine.

A good representation of members as well as the regent had attended the Empire Day and intercession services.

A special donation was made to the educational work. Assistance will be given by the chapter in raising the Alexandra Rose Day fund. Members will endeavor to use their various talents during the holidays to augment the funds of the chapter.

Mrs. Hill entertained the members at tea after the business meeting. Mrs. R. B. McMicking, Mrs. J. H. Gillespie and Miss A. B. Cooke were present. Mrs. F. R. Wright and Miss McKinnon presided at the tea table, which was beautifully decorated with flowers.

Kumtuks Hear Fine Convention Report

A very interesting report of the Washington State Federation of Business and Professional Women's Clubs held at Walla Walla recently was presented by Mrs. E. G. Maynard before the Kumtuks Club at its supper meeting in the Y.W.C.A. last night. Mrs. Maynard represented the club at Walla Walla and was the only Canadian present, and the American women tendered to her many charming courtesies in appreciation of her presence at the gathering.

She reviewed the business of the sessions and described how many of the discussions were waged in the form of debates, mimeographed copies of which are since available to all the clubs. Mrs. Lena Madesin Phillips, national president for the United States clubs spoke brilliantly according to Mrs. Maynard.

In connection with the recent banquet given by the club, letters of grateful appreciation were received from Vancouver, Bellingham, Everett, Chehalis and other clubs represented at the gathering. Miss Conacher has presented to the club a handsome photograph of the "Music shop" participants.

The last meeting of the season will be a luncheon on June 25. Invitations were received from Mrs. R. P. Matheson, Mrs. C. W. Bradshaw, Mrs. Morgan and Miss Richardson to hold Summer picnic meetings at their respective homes.

DAUGHTER OF CHIEF JUSTICE LOVELY BRIDE

Nuptials of Miss Helen Macdonald and Mr. Oliver Pauline Last Night

Hundreds of Guests at Reception Held at Government House

Christ Church Cathedral was filled with a large and fashionable congregation last night at 8.30 p.m. for the beautiful ceremony which united in marriage Helen, younger daughter of Hon. J. A. Macdonald, Chief Justice of the British Columbia Court of Appeal and Official Administrator, and Mrs. Macdonald of "Somerled," St. Charles Street, to Mr. Oliver Pauline, younger son of Hon. E. A. Pauline, Agent-General for British Columbia, and Mrs. Pauline. Rt. Rev. C. de V. Schofield, Bishop of Columbia, officiated.

For the happy occasion girl friends of the bride, under the direction of Mrs. Walter Burton, had decorated the church with a profusion of early summer flowers in the pastel shades of pink, blue, mauve and white. An archway of white flowers spanned the entrance to the chancel, and at the chancel rails standard baskets of roses, pyrethrum, lupins, iris and delphinium were banked with lovely effect. Baskets filled with peonies, campanula, pyrethrum, valerian and sword ferns graced each pillar down the length of the church and the guest pews were marked with pink peonies and maidenhair fern tied with white ribbons.

The service was fully choral and as the bride entered the Cathedral on her father's arm, she was met by the surpliced choir who preceded her down the aisle to the strains of "The Voice That Breath'd O'er Eden."

During the signing of the register the choir sang "O Love Divine," and as the bridal party left the church the organist played the "Lohengrin" Bridal Chorus.

Tall and slim, the bride was a charming picture in her exquisite wedding gown of ivory crepe-back satin of period style. The straight, slender bodice had a pointed yoke of finest silk lace, set in with tiny pearls, and was joined to the skirt by shirring at the waist. The very full skirt had a deep hem of the lace, set in with the pearls and was short in front and almost touching the heels at the back. A huge bow of white velvet ribbon was posed on the left hip. A long court train of the satin lined with white georgette and finished at the hem with a spray of handmade lace and georgette flowers, and an exquisite veil of old Brussels lace completed the bridal toilette. She carried a shower bouquet of white roses and lilies of the valley.

Five attendants followed the bride. Miss Norma Macdonald, sister of the bride, was maid of honor in a French bouffant gown of ivory georgette, with hem of deep pink georgette, and for trimming pink handmade georgette applique roses and foliage. With it she wore a very becoming picture hat of white silk braid with crystal ornament, and carried a bouquet of pink roses and delphiniums.

The four bridesmaids, the Misses Helen Forman, Margaret Campbell, Catherine Fraser and Iris Burton, were gowned alike in sleeveless bouffant frocks of pink pearl georgette over crepe de Chine with full skirts of frilled pink silk net, trimmed with French flowers of the georgette, and finished at the deep waistline with a swathed belt of gold tissue and large bow of the same material on the left hips. They wore picture hats of pink and mauve silk braid and silk with crystal drop ornaments, and carried bouquets of roses, sweet peas and delphinium.

Mr. George Pauline, cousin of the bridegroom, was best man, and the ushers were Mr. Frederick Pauline of Vancouver, brother of the bridegroom; Messrs. Alan McAnally, A. L. Collison and Vincent McKenna.

After the ceremony a reception was held at Government House, where the young couple received several hundred guests in the drawing-room, assisted by Mrs. Macdonald, who was smartly gowned in rose beige georgette, trimmed with applique lace to tone, and softly draped, and a becoming picture hat of mauve mohair with embroidered crown in mauve shades.

Pink campanulas, pink pyrethrum and plumbago were massed in the drawing-room, and in the hall huge bowls of pale blue delphiniums and vari-colored schizanthus made a charming effect.

From the drawing-room the guests repaired to the ballroom, where dancing was enjoyed. A buffet supper was served in the dining-room, the wedding cake occupying the place of honor on the beautifully decorated table with its bowls of pink roses and pale pink tapers in silver candlesticks. The Dean of Columbia proposed the health of the bride.

The many very beautiful gifts received from friends far and near were displayed in the upper hall.

Among the out-of-town guests were: Mr. and Mrs. J. W. de B. Farris and Miss Katherine Farris, Mr. and Mrs. J. Campbell, Mr. Justice and Mrs. D. A. Macdonald, Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Macdonald, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Wood, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Craig, Mr. and Mrs. Fred. Pauline, Mr. Justice and Mrs. Morrison, Mr. Justice and Mrs. D. Murphy, Mr. H. T. Wallace, Mr. E. S. H. Winn, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Johnson and Miss Hilda Langton, all of Vancouver.

Mr. and Mrs. Pauline left for a honeymoon by motor, the bride traveling in a beautiful Victoria-woven homespun sports ensemble in a shrim pink shade, with stripes shading into mauve and blue, and felt hat en suite. Later they will take up their residence in their new home at Foul Bay Road.

Garden Party.—The garden party arranegd by the squimalt subdivision of the Catholic Women's League will be held on Wednesday afternoon and evening in the grounds adjoining the church, Victoria West, corner of Russell and Langford Streets.

Catholic Women's League.—Mrs. R. Moffitt, 512 Simcoe Street, is loaning her house for a bridge and five hundred party to be held on Wednesday evening June 20, in aid of diocesan funds of the Catholic Women's League.

Keep That Schoolgirl Complexion, By Following This Simple Rule In Skin Care—Night and Morning

IT'S not only in the thirties and the forties that Youth Preservation presents itself as a problem. It starts in the late 'teens and early twenties, with the admonition of experts that the time to safeguard youth is in youth.

The rule for so doing, according to the day's most eminent specialists, is the most simple of all rules in modern beauty culture—the skin cleansed thoroughly of beauty-destroying accumulations every morning and every night.

That means soap and water; but NOT just "any" good soap. A true complexion soap is meant. Others may prove too harsh. So, largely on expert advice, thousands use gentle Palmolive in this way.

In the morning and at bedtime—this

Wash your face gently with soothing Palmolive Soap, massaging the lather softly into the skin. Rinse thoroughly, first with warm water, then with cold. If your skin is inclined to be dry, apply a touch of good cold cream—that is all.

Do this regularly, and particularly in the evening. Use powder and rouge if you wish. But never leave them on over night. They clog the pores, often enlarge them. Blackheads and disfigurements often follow. They must be washed away.

Avoid this mistake

Do not use ordinary soaps in the treatment given above. Do not think any green soap, or one represented as of olive and palm oils, is the same as Palmolive.

And it costs but 10c the cake! So little that millions let it do for their bodies what it does for their faces. Obtain a cake—then note the difference one week makes.

DANCE REVUE IS PRETTY SPECTACLE

Pupils of Miss Violet Fowkes Gave Clever Recital Last Night

The Playhouse Theatre was filled to overflowing last night when the clever pupils of Miss Violet Fowkes presented one of the most successful and beautiful exhibition of dancing ever given in the city by amateurs.

The programme opened with a spectacular ballet number, "The Haunted Tree," this being the first time that a complete ballet has been staged locally. Miss Maureen Grute, an accomplished and graceful little dancer, was the good fairy with whom the prince, Helen Peden, was in love. Joyce Finch was the Evil Spirit and others in the cast were: The fairies—Genevieve Liddle, Joyce Whitehead, Maryan Peterson, Betty Maclean, Gladys Bailey and Berna Waring; the leaves—Valentine Harlock, Charmain Brown, June Maynard, Joyce Dixon, Marjory Thomson, Helen Frame, Jean Brenchley, Marion Houghton and Eugene Doherty.

The second half of the programme included a series of classical, eccentric, and fancy dances. Miss Fowkes, who is an unusually gifted and finished dancer, contributing an exhibition waltz, with Raymond Ditchburn as partner. Mr. Ditchburn and Maureen Grute also appeared in a graceful Adagio (Delibes); and one of the most popular numbers was the Bowery dance in which little Georgina Dowdall showed her ability as a comedienne as well as a dancer.

The Indian dagger dance was skilfully interpreted by Ken Bostock, and the final Scene de Ballet was gorgeously colorful in effect. Maureen Grute was the soloist and the corps de ballet included Georgina Dowdall, Maryan Peterson, Peggy Macdougall, Genevieve Liddle, Berna Waring, Joyce Finch, Helen Peden, Joyce Whitehead, Betty MacLean, Gladys Bailey, Helen Frame, Charmain Brown, Marjory Thomson, Eugene Doherty, Valentine Harlock and June Maynard.

Other delightful numbers which won much applause were: "The Bunnies," by Ethel Gillis, Mavis Barker, Ruth Gardiner, Jean Scott and Barbara Haughton "The Bubble," by Elinor Brooke; "Japanese Fantasy," by Helen Peden, Gladys Bailey, Joyce Finch, Helen Frame and Mavis Barker; "Flirtation," by Peggy Macdougall and Ken Bostock; "Varsity Drag," by Phyllis Petherbridge; "The Daisy Chain," by Elinor Brooke, Mavis Barker, Ruth Gardiner, Ethel Gillis, Jean Scott and Barbara Haughton; "Polish Mazurka," by Dorothy Key, Madeliene Priestley, Hilda Hinder and Eleanor Wright; "Scarfe Dance," by Berna Waring, Joyce Whitehead, Peggy Macdougall and Genevieve Liddle; "The Butterfly," by Nancy Ferguson; "Waltz Clog," by Ray Ditchburn and Ken Bostock; "Jarabe Tapatio," by Beverley Valo; "Mexican National Dance," by Hilda Hinder and Eleanor Wright; "Highland Fling," by Maryan Peterson, Betty Webber, Gwen Dewar, Nancy Boyd, Doreen June Scurrah, Helen Beveridge and Jean Marsh; "The Swords," by Nancy Ferguson; "Reel o' Tulloch," by Maryan Peterson, Doreen June Scurrah, Betty Webber and Gwen Dewar; accompanist, Piper Angus Munro; "Oriental Cymbals," Beverley Valo; "Sunshine Girls," Hilda Hinder, Eleanor Wright, Dorothy Key, Madeliene Priestly, Nancy Ferguson, Phyllis Petherbridge, Jean Cameron and Florence Alexander.

Miss Fowkes was responsible for the very pretty costumes, and taught all the dances, with the exception of the Highland dances by pupils of Miss Nancy Ferguson. At the close of the programme Miss Fowkes was overwhelmed with floral tributes from her pupils, and an ovation from the audience testified to their appreciation of her excellent teaching.

Held Memorial Services.—Very impressive memorial services were held by Queen Alexandra Review No. 1 W.B.A. for their deceased members on Sunday at 2.30 in the K. of P. Hall, the president, Mrs. Ritchie, in charge. A beautiful solo was rendered by Mrs. Hall. Dr. Clem Davies delivered an interesting address, taking as his text, "Moses My servant, is dead; now therefore arise." Pages with candles and baskets of flowers advanced to the top of the hall and as Mrs. Morses called the name of each departed sister, a candle was snuffed and flowers placed on the altar. A Latin cross was then formed by the guard, a prayer offered by Mrs. Laing, chaplain, for those who have passed on and for their families, after which the guard marched past, leaving floral offerings at the altar to be taken to the cemeteries and placed on the graves of all departed members.

Gave Highland Dances—Miss I. White was the exponent of Highland dancing at the Girl Guide garden party in the grounds of Government House on Saturday afternoon.

Return Fare For Immigrants Is M.P.'s Suggestion

London, June 12.—Many women are deterred from emigrating from Britain by fear of being unable to raise money for the passage homeward if the life overseas proved uncongenial, a member stated in the House of Commons yesterday afternoon.

It was suggested that female emigrants going out to the Dominions under assisted passage schemes should be guaranteed their return fair after a certain period had elapsed, with due safeguards being formulated against any abuse of this privilege.

Right Hon. L. C. Amery, Dominions Secretary, replied that single women only were assisted to emigrate overseas for employment in domestic work, and the rate of pay for such work in the Dominions was generally sufficient to enable women wishing to revisit England to save enough for the purpose within two years of their arrival. He considered it unnecessary to adopt the suggestion put forward.

CHILD SHOWS FEAR OF RELATIVES

Mrs. T. J. K. writes:

"I have been using your feeding leaflet with good results for a long time, but like all mothers I have my troubles, too, and though this isn't a serious one, I don't know how best to handle it. We have an only child, a little three-year-old daughter, born after many years of marriage and we think her the "only thing." I have been careful of her and have kept her at home a great deal. We live near a relative who has three small children and my little girl has known them all since babyhood. But lately she goes into a perfect tantrum every time they come to the house and cries and screams. As far as I know, they have always been good to her, and of course her mother thinks I have a terrible child. How can I go about curing her of this habit? I have spanked her after they left."

ANSWER

It is not unusual for children to show fear of strangers, which they will get over if they are not forced to go to them until they learn that there is nothing to fear.

Since you do not know what may have started the initial trouble I can't help you there, but it is easy enough to see now what is wrong. Even one spanking which became associated in the child's mind with this particular family would be enough to make her fear and dread them from that time on. Now she expects no doubt that after each visit she is going to be spanked or scolded, and so instead of enjoying these children as she formerly did, she fears them and cries and screams when they come near her.

The only way you can remedy this is to let her go in another room when they come and play by herself. Do not let any of them go near her or try to coax her to come to them. Let her find that she is not scolded for her tantrums, and that after they go you treat her as before, not mentioning that she has been a "bad, naughty child" and you are ashamed of her.

It is a common practice of adults and larger children to want to carry smaller children about. The smaller child comes to dislike the person who is always grabbing him and holding him tightly in temporary imprisonment. Sometimes no matter how he struggles to free himself the older child holds on and so the baby's only recourse is to scream until released. This holds just as true for adults who are always forcing children to sit on their laps.

Watch those persons who cause your child fear and you will usually discover what started the temper outburst in the first place, and of course if you spank a child that only increases both his anger and his fears. Instead, make the older children mend their ways and their methods of handling the child.

RACING TO START SOON IN PROVINCE

150 Bang-tails Now at Lansdowne Track Where Season Will Open on June 30

First Victoria Meet Will Not Get Under Way Until Aug. 9 at Colwood Park

Opening of the Spring race meetings at Calgary and other prairie tracks has whetted the appetites of local followers of the bang-tails who are now looking forward to the start of horse racing in British Columbia.

Racing will open in Victoria at the one-mile Colwood track on August 9, continuing until August 16. The second meet will be staged at the Willows from August 18 to August 25. On Saturday, September 8, the horses will return to the Colwood track for another seven days racing.

HORSES ARRIVING

A number of local horses have wintered at the Willows and will leave shortly for Vancouver to take part in the first meet. According to advance reports several of the finest strings on the continent will come to British Columbia tracks this Summer.

Horses are now arriving at Vancouver for the opening of the season at Lansdowne Park on June 30. There will be shipments almost daily until the opening day.

Fourteen of the finest thoroughbreds that George Drumheller, well-known race-horse owner, has yet brought to British Columbia, were unloaded at Lansdowne over the week-end. Drumheller's chief ambition is to land a British Columbia derby, and with this in view he has a couple of colts which will be rounded into shape for the event.

A number of other strings have also arrived at Vancouver. The B.C. Stables, owners of Hamadan, Greenshields, Chicory and other fast steppers, have arrived from Calgary. In all these are approximately 150 horses in training at Lansdowne. In the next two weeks many other ponies will arrive.

SOFTBALL

Langford jumped into undisputed lead in the Westholme Softball League last night when they handed the Times a 16-7 walloping, while Marigold took a trouncing from the Colonist by 20-18. Langford now has a two-point lead over Marigold with the Times in third place.

Hard hitting on the part of Langford featured their victory over the Times. The suburbanites hit the ball all over the lot and had the newsies out of breath chasing it. They also played airtight ball in the field and gave the papermen little chance to even up after piling up an early lead.

Crescents had little trouble in disposing of the Wilfert Lumber in the other escheduled game, letting the woodmen down with only 3 runs, while they amassed a total of 28.

Large scores featured the softball games played last night in the Ladies League. The results were as follows:

Harmony 50, New Method Laundry 12.
Rainbows 18, St. Saviour's 1.
Axioms 25, Langford 4.

Second Half Of Baseball Schedule Starts To-morrow

Commercial League baseball teams will start play to-morrow night in the second half of their schedule. Westholmes, champions of the first half, are slated to hook up with the Tillicums at the Royal Athletic Park commencing at 6.15 o'clock.

Pollard will hurk for the Westholmes while Pete Campbell or Lloyd Cann will handle the heavy work for the Tillicums.

A Great Oarsman —By Jimmy Thompson

Lewis F. Scholes, better known in athletic circles almost the world over as "Lou," was one of Canada's most famous scullers in his day. But recently he has forsaken the sculls to "put in his oar" in the business world as a hotel manager. He has just been appointed manager of the latest hotel to open in Toronto, the new Ford.

It was away back in 1904 that Lou began to sweep the regatta courses of the Dominion and the United States. He reached the pinnacle of his fame when he carried off the coveted diamond sculls. In the series of four races rowed by him, it is interesting to note that he lowered his time for the course in each race, dropping from 9 minutes, 1 second in the first to 8 minutes, 10 seconds in the final, a performance which was considered a record for the diamond sculls at that time.

He was no mean boxer in his day, too. He won heavyweight honors in 1902. Previous to that he had made a name for himself as a cyclist and held the boys' record for a mile in 1895.

During the war he was captain and military director in the 180th Battalion.

SONS WINNERS OF POOR GAME

Errors Feature Senior League Fixture; Sons Win 13-11

In a game featured by errors the Sons of Canada defeated the Eagles 13-11 last night at the Royal Athletic Park. Both clubs were yards off form, fifteen errors being chalked off by the scorer, the Eagles being the worst offenders with ten.

The Eagles failed to do a thing right. Whiteside, their star portsider, pitched a fairly good game, but his efforts were useless as his teammates let everything get by them. Bill Holness started for the Sons, but was chased to the showers in the sixth in favor of Kerr.

STARTED EVERYTHING

The Sons started the scoring bee in the first inning when they chased seven runners across the plate. The Eagles got away to a great sart in the race to which team could make the most errors, and miscues helped the Sons in their scoring. The Eagles scored three in the first frame, and added one more in the second.

The Sons scored one run in each of the next three innings, and checked home three in the seventh. The Eagles scored three in the third, one in the fourth, two in the fifth and their final run in the seventh.

Colin Campbell led the Sons' hitters with three out of five safeties, while Robinson headed the Eagles with a like number.

SONS TO MEET SIDNEY SQUAD

League Leadership at Stake When Lacrosse Teams Play To-night

With the leadership of the league at stake the Sons of Canada and Sidney lacrosse teams will meet to-night at the Royal Athletic Park commencing at 6.30 o'clock.

The three teams, Sidney, Sons of Canada and C.P.S., in the Victoria and District Lacrosse League, are all tied for first place, each with a victory and defeat chalked opposite their names in the standings. The winner of to-night's game will gain the league lead.

Interest is keen in the league this year and, if the competition remains close, lacrosse should experience a most successful season.

Places Are Filled For U.S. Open Golf Championship At Chicago On June 21

One Hundred and Eighteen Pros and Amateurs Succeed in Winning Places in Qualifying Round; Several Stars, Including Roland McKenzie and Eddie Held, Fail to Qualify; Thirty-two Leaders From Last Year's Tourney Are Given Places; Foreign Players Also Have Places Reserved

New York, June 12.—One hundred and thirty of the 150 places in the United States open golf championship at Olympic Fields June 21, had been filled to-day. Completion yesterday of qualifying rounds in sixteen of the widely scattered seventeen districts saw ninety-eight golfers earn the right to compete in Chicago next week. Twenty more, Chicago's quota, will have been added to the list by nightfall.

The remaining thirty-two places are already taken by those exempt from the qualifying test. This latter group includes Tommy Armour, defending champion, Bobby Jones, Gene Sarazen, Walter Hagen, Archie Compston, Arthur Havers, Harry Cooper, Bill Mehlhorn and other leading stars, who finished among the first thirty at Oakmont in 1927. Several entrants from other nations also were exempt from the test.

FAIL TO QUALIFY

Roland Mackenzie, Washington, and Clarence Hackney, of Atlantic City, failed to get within the select circle at Philadelphia.

At New York, Eddie Held, of Lakeville, and George Dawson, of Westchester, failed.

A. A. Armour, Washington, brother of the titleholder, qualified.

Leaders in the qualifying rounds:

John Manion, St. Louis, 143; Ed. Dudley, Los Angeles, 143; Fred Morrison, Los Angeles, 143; Bill Leach, Philadelphia, 144; Walter Crooks, Denver, Colo., 144; Henri Cinci, Hartford, Conn., 144.

Portland, Ore., June 12.—Johnny Jones, professional at the Glendale Club, Seattle, and Neil Christian, Waverley Country Club pro, won the right to compete in the national open tournament at Chicago next week, when they topped the field in the Pacific Northwest sectional qualifying round yesterday at the Waverley course. There was just one stroke difference in the thirty-six-hole medal cards of the two leaders.

The Seattle pro, who recently won the Pacific Northwest match play title by defeating Christian in a seventy-two-hole match, led the sectional qualifying field by one stroke. He took a 71 and a 76 for his two trips over the well-trapped Waverley layout, finishing with a total of 147. Christian, with two consistent rounds of 74, was one stroke behind the leader, with 148.

The qualifiers:

Johnny Jones, Seattle, 71-76—147.
Neil Christian, Waverley, 74-74—148.
George Beer, Astoria, 72-79—151.
Mortie Dutra, Tacoma, 77-75—152.
Gwyn Bowen, Lake Oswego, 78-75—153.
Frank Rodia, Seattle, 76-78—154.
Ivan Johnson, Tualatin, 77-77—154.
J. N. French, Waverley, 85-84—169.
George O'Connell, Waverley, 86-83—169.
Hugh Starweather, Lake Oswego, 89-80—169.

Detroit, June 12.—George Von Elm, former national amateur golf champion, made a great comeback in the afternoon round to tie with Charles Hilgendorf and Clayton Attridge for first place in the qualifying round of the national open tournament here yesterday.

Von Elm scored an 80 in the morning round, but played a brilliant 70 in the afternoon for a total of 150. L. L. Bredin, after scoring 153, assuring himself of a place with the qualifiers, withdrew.

The eight qualifiers and their scores: George Von Elm, Tam o' Shanter, 80-70—150; Charles Hilgendorf, Lochmoor, 74-76—150; Clayton Attridge, Country Club, 74-76—150; William Courtney, Western, 74-80—154; Charles Guest, Tam o' Shanter, 77-77—154; Bill Trovinger, Glen Oaks, 78-76—154; Clarence Gammer, Pine Lake, 77-80—157; Jake Fassezke, Owosso, 79-78—157.

Atlanta, Ga., June 12.—Charlie Black, Atlanta amateur, and Frank Ball, professional, qualified here yesterday for the national open golf tournament at Chicago. They tied for the lead with 150 strokes for the thirty-six holes.

Newton, Mass., June 12.—Henry Cuici, Bridgeport, Conn., professional, with a card of 144, led a field of thirty-three golfers, in the thirty-six-hole qualifying round for the national open championship here yesterday.

Willie Ogg, Worcester, was runner-up with 145 and the other three New Englanders to qualify for the national open at Chicago next week were John Cowan of Oakley, 147; Charles McAndrews of Laconia, N.H., 149, and George Aulbach, unattached, 152.

Kansas City, June 12.—Horton Smith of Joplin, Mo.; Harold McSpaden of Kansas City, and "Chick" Trout of Topeka, Kansas, to-day qualified for the national open golf tournament in the Kansas City district's eliminations.

Smith's 145 for the thirty-six holes was low. McSpaden, Trout and Chester Jones of Lawrence, Kansas, tied for second place with 151, requiring a nine-hole play-off, in which Jones was eliminated.

FIELDING IS IN GOOD TRIM

Training Carefully For His Fight With Jakie Knott Here on Saturday

Tommy Fielding, featherweight boxer, one of Victoria's best bets in the fighting line, is grinding away daily in and around Colwood for his mix-up on Saturday night at the Tillicum Club with Jackie Knott of Vancouver.

It will be a ten-round affair and, if the little fellows run true to form, the fans should see lots of action.

Fielding is a very shifty fellow, fast on his feet and clever with his mitts. He has shown plenty of class lately.

Tommy is by no means underrating Knott's ability as a tough and rugged boxer and, under the watchful eyes of Joe Bayley and Harry Hammond, he is leaving no stone unturned in order to be in the pink of condition when he enters the ring.

COLWOOD WIN SAYWARD CUP

Victoria Golf Club Ladies Beaten; Miss Wilson Loses to Mrs. Sweeny

By the margin of one point, the ladies of the Colwood Golf Club yesterday defeated the Victoria Golf Club team in a match for the Sayward Cup. The score was: Colwood, 3½; Victoria, 2½.

Miss Marion Wilson, British Columbia women's champion, suffered defeat at the hands of Mrs. Sweeny of Vancouver, who played with Colwood. Miss Wilson defeated Mrs. Sweeny when they last met, on the occasion of the finals for the British Columbia title in April.

The results, with the Victoria team first named, were:

Miss M. Wilson	0	Mrs. Sweeny	1
Mrs. Philbrick	0½	Mrs. F. Wilson	0½
Mrs. Hutchinson	0	Miss Schwengers	1

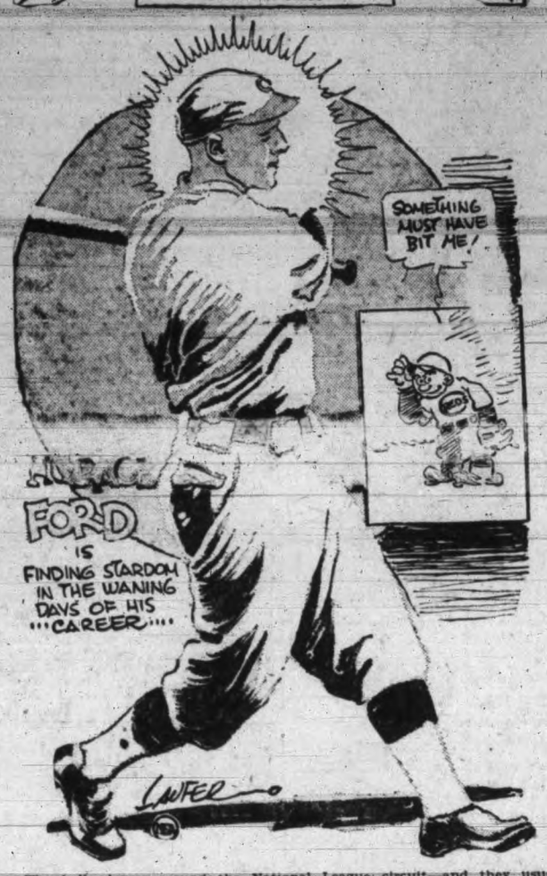
KEEP YOUR EYE ON

HORACE FORD
Cincinnati Reds



The ball players around the National League circuit—and they usually know—say that Horace Ford, shortstop for the Cincinnati Reds, is the most improved player in the big leagues. Cincinnati fans go farther and offer him as the most valuable player of the current season. After tramping around the major leagues for ten years with the Braves, the Phils and the Robins, Ford finally hit his stride with the Cincinnati club. The former Tufts College boy and Hughey Critz have been forming the best second base combination in the league and they figure to make a new double play record this season. Ford's greatly improved play has corrected a weakness that has bothered the Reds for years and he may make a pennant winner out of the club.

NO UPSETS IN JUNIOR TENNIS

Favorites Win in B.C. Championships; Weaker Players Being Eliminated

Most of the favorites advanced another round yesterday in the British Columbia Junior Tennis Tourney, now in progress at the Willows. Some of the young competitors have reached the semi-finals.

Steve Jones, defending under eighteen titleholder, and Elliott McSwain, whom he defeated in the finals last year, both had easy wins to their credit yesterday and Jones entered the semi-final bracket in the upper half of the draw, where he will probably meet Hanbury of Brentwood College. McSwain is favored to reach the finals in the lower half, although he must first dispose of Dennis Nichol of Ocean Falls.

Fourteen matches are scheduled for to-day, most of them in the girls' events. Yesterday's results were:

YANKEES GO INTO "SLUMP"

Second Straight Defeat at Hands of Chicago Accounts For No. 10 Loss

Cut-throat Competition in National League Makes Things Interesting

The New York Yankees have struck their second "slump" of the season. They have lost two ball games in a row.

Oddly enough it was none other than the lowly Chicago White Sox who reached up from the American League cellar to smite the Yankees for their tenth setback of the season yesterday just after defeat No. 9 for the champions had come from the same team the day before.

Reverse No. 10 can be attributed to airtight pitching by Ted Blankenship who held the Yankees to four hits.

Only once before this season have Babe Ruth and Company succumbed twice in a row. Lefty Grove and Rube Walberg, twin southpaws of Connie Mack's Athletics, turned the trick at the Yankee Stadium April 20 and 21.

NOT FAR BEHIND?

Successive home runs by Simmons and Fox in the eighth enabled the Philadelphia Athletics to down Detroit, 4-2, and cut the Yankees' lead to a mere 9½ games.

The St. Louis Browns consolidated their place just back of the Athletics in the standings by beating the Boston Red Sox, 2-1.

Cleveland lost to Washington 7-6 in ten innings. It was the Indians' fourteenth defeat in seventeen games.

Meanwhile the National League contenders—there are about seven of them—continued their merry cut-throat competition.

Five runs in the ninth gave the Cincinnati Reds their second straight over the New York Giants, 7-5. Picinich hit two homers.

St. Louis clung to the Reds' pace-making heels, with an easy victory over the Boston Braves 8 to 1. Alexander showed a surprising return to form. The critics were beginning to make "Old Alex" sing his swan song but he fooled them.

Guy Bush outpitched McWeeney and Erhardt and the Chicago Cubs took the first game of the series with Brooklyn 3-1. Stephenson's timely hitting was the feautre.

Pittsburgh's patched-up line-up was so full of holes that the Phillies drove through to win 6-4, scoring four of their runs in the seventh inning.

Yesterday's results were:

LAKE TOSSES GLOVES FAST, WINNING BOUT

Felix, Packing Wallop in Each Hand, Too Slow For Stoker

Wing Hay Gets Call Over Britt When He Dislikes Referee's Warning

Stoker Percy Lake, brother of one of the English boxing champions, appeared in the main event at the Tillicum Club last night, and gave a good account of himself, winning easily over Leo Felix, of Seattle, in eight rounds.

Felix had two hands loaded with T.N.T., but outside of that he had very little in the way of boxing equipment. He was an easy target and, had Lake possessed anything in the way of a hard punch, he would have had Felix in a bad way. Lake contented himself with leading with his left and dancing a lot, and although he peppered the Seattle boy's jaw, he might just as well have popped away at a concrete wall for all the effect it had.

NO OPENINGS

Felix went along round after round hoping for a chance to land his right in particular. He cocked his left at times but Lake was on the move so much that Felix was able to land very seldom. Felix changed his style a dozen times in an effort to open up a hole in Lake's defence but each time he was outsmarted.

Lake won every round. Although outreached and outweighted by his opponent, Lake was leading for the great part of the fight.

Wing Hay, the Alberni Chinaman, made his first appearance in a local ring in what was to have been an eight-round bout. His opponent was Leading Stoker Britt, of H.M.S. Durban. Hay was awarded the fight when Britt took exception to a warning from Referee Kerr and walked to his corner. Britt was tiring when he retired and Hay, although bleeding freely at the nose, was coming on fast.

Britt made his bid for the fight in the first two rounds. He had little to recommend him as a fighter except a right swing, which would have moved a house. Hay ran full into the wallop several times and his face was bruised. Britt slowed down in the third round and Hay was not punished as much, while he was able to hit Britt almost at will. The tide turned in this round and in the fourth, Britt's haymaker was of little use to him. Hay certainly showed a lot of gameness in carrying the fight to Britt when he must have been stung by the hard smashes of the sailor.

A SURPRISE

Stoker Thomas got a surprise in the fourth round of his bout with Pete Megallames of Seattle. After being badly outpointed in the first three rounds Megallames staged a fast finish and registered a technical knockout. The bout pleased the fans.

Seaman Worthington gained the decision over Tiger Napoleon of Seattle after four rounds.

Danny Pastro and Seaman Johnson were pretty tired at the final bell, and the decision was given to the former. They both hit with everything they had, but neither had enough to put the other away.

Seaman Merritt won the call from Scotty Sinnott in the second round on a foul.

CAREFUL IN MATCHING

There was plenty of action in the bouts, but it is to be hoped that the next time any programme is carded in which the bluejackets from a visiting warship are to appear that white opponents will be found for them. Last night four of the sailors were pitted against three Filipinos and a Chinaman. While no fault could be found with the work of the Orientals still there are plenty of white boys who can be found as opponents for bouts of this nature. In fact some of the local boys would have been just as good as the outsiders.

WILL LECTURE ON PROPHECY

Mysterious Number 666 Is Prof. Everson's Theme

"The mysterious number of Prophecy 666: 'Has the True Explanation Finally Been Found?'" will be the subject of the lecture delivered to-night by Prof. C. T. Everson at the big tabernacle, Pandora and Vancouver Streets.

This number 666 has always had a mysterious attraction for all students of Bible prophecy because it seemed to them to hold a hidden meaning that would give great light once it could be properly understood, says Professor Everson.

Professor Everson stated: "The verse that contains this reference to the number 666 begins with the words: 'Let him that hath wisdom count the number.'"

"The very fact that the Bible indicates that special wisdom is needed to understand the meaning of the number, has spurred Bible students on to find out what great light might be there."

VICTORIA BOYS WIN AT CRICKET

Defeat Vancouver in Annual Team Match; Tye Saves Locals in First Innings

The annual match between the Victoria and the Vancouver boys was played on Saturday in Vancouver in perfect cricket weather. Vancouver won the toss and started with Heaps and Dickie facing Tisdale and Leney. Leney bowled two maiden overs, securing a wicket in each, but Heaps and Smith carried the score to twenty-four before Eaton Shore, who had replaced Tisdale, bowled Smith with his first ball. Webb, who carried his bat for twenty, and Mercer, who hit a beautiful six off Eaton Shore, carried the score further, and, the tail having wagged but feebly, the innings closed for seventy-five. The Victoria boys fielded very well.

The Victoria innings came near to developing into a rout, such as sometimes occurs, and it was only the excellent performance of Tye, who batted splendidly for two hours, that averted disaster. His performance kept the Victoria boys going and Henry and Redpath responded nobly. Still nine wickets were down for sixty-eight and the honor of passing the Vancouver total came after two very tense overs to Warder and McInnes.

Vancouver went in again and, with the exception of Burridge, could make no showing against Henry's bowling. Left with forty-three runs to get, Victoria obtained them for the loss of three wickets, Tisdale, who batted well and hit merrily for twenty-one, being bowled out by the last ball delivered. Tye again played sterling cricket. When all do their part well it is hard to pick out individuals, but spectators were warm in their praise of Tye's batting and Henry's bowling—four for ten and six for nine.

GETS BURNS'S JOB

LON FONSECA

All during the Winter months the Cleveland Indians were angling for a classy first baseman to have around in case George Burns slipped a bit, and they had one on the club all the time in Lou Fonseca, the only Portuguese in the majors. Fonseca has been playing at Burns's job for several weeks now and it looks like he is going to have it the rest of the season.

TENNIS TALKS

Play the Ball on the Rise When Receiving Service

By GEORGE M. LOTT JR.

In order to receive the service properly, it is absolutely necessary to be on your toes, both literally and figuratively. An opponent with a good service is able to put his service in either corner, therefore you must be prepared to jump to either side quickly.

When receiving the first serve, it is customary to stand about a foot behind the baseline or, if you are exceptionally fast, on the baseline. for the second serve, which, in most cases, is slower than the first, it is possible to move in much closer. How close, depending upon the speed of the serve. For the average second serve you may stand about three feet inside the baseline.

While waiting for the server to put the ball in play it is advisable to hold the racket in the left hand if you are a right-handed player, and the right if you are a left-handed player. The idea is to conserve as much as possible the hand used in the actual game. It is quite a relaxation to move the racket out of the playing hand even for only a few seconds.

The best way to return a service is to hit the ball at the top of the bound or on the rise. By doing his you gain an advantage over your opponent in that the ball is returned to him very quickly and he has to hurry to get your shot back. Also you will get more speed on your return with the same amount of effect that you would if you stood way back and waited for the ball to come to you. Another advantage of playing the ball on the rise is that you have gained a couple of steps toward the net. You immediately place your opponent on the defence, and you have accomplished a great deal toward winning the match.

This is the correct position to receive the serve. Note how Lott is resting his playing hand by grasping racket in left hand while waiting for serve.

HORSE RACING

New York, June 12.—C. Schwartz's Kentucky II raced to an impressive victory yesterday in the Queens County Handicap, feature of the opening day's card at Aqueduct. The four-year-old son of Royal Canopy and Naisha ran the mile in 1.38 4-5 to win by two lengths. Black Panther, trailing the field at the stretch, closed with a tremendous burst of speed to take the place. Tantivy was third. The race was worth $8,650.

Little Colonel, owned by S. J. Kelly, won the Mount Auburn, a claiming affair for three-year-olds which served as the feature at Latonia. Kentucky Ace was second and Prince Balbo third. Kentucky Ace finished fast and would have caught Little Colonel, badly tiring, had the finish line been a few more strides away.

Dark Phantom completed the feature at Arlington, a $1,200, six-furlong run for fillies and mares, three-year-olds and up. Fair Anita was second and Bonnie Khayyam third. The time was 1.11.

The Birthday Gift Supreme a C·C·M·Joycycle

WHAT a wonderful birthday gift for the golden years of childhood's play age!

My, what games of "pretend" children play—what fun they have! And the youngsters, with the dashing, easy-running C. C. M. Joycycles, are the envy of the street. For C. C. M. Joycycles are the class of the juvenile vehicles.

Charlotte Will Take First Trip to North Friday; Louise Sails For Skagway To-morrow

Being cleaned and painted and generally overhauled the Canadian Pacific coastwise steamer Princess Maquinna used on the West Coast route, is tied up at the Belleville Street docks.

The Maquinna is receiving an interior reconditioning, all her staterooms and public rooms being thoroughly cleaned and painted and redecorated in preparation for the heavy Summer tourist travel to the West Coast of Vancouver Island. The Princess Mary is now taking the West Coast run, but after July 1 both the Mary and the Maquinna will operate on the coast, the Maquinna to Geen's Cove and the Mary as far North as Port Alice. The Maquinna will later be put into drydock, where underwater repairs and exterior painting will be done.

After a general overhauling in preparation for the Summer season the Princess Charlotte was put on the triangle run between Victoria, Vancouver and Seattle this afternoon, to relieve the Princess Marguerite, which will take a special excursion of the credit men's association now meeting in Seattle to Victoria and return to-morrow. The Charlotte will take her first run of the season to Skagway from Vancouver on Friday evening.

On her second trip of the season to Alaska the Princess Louise will leave Vancouver to-morrow evening for Skagway. The Louise was in Victoria all day to-day loading, and will leave for Vancouver to-night, from where she will sail for the North.

GIANT CARRIER MAKES RECORD

U.S. Air Craft Carrier Lexington Establishes World Record Run of 700 Miles

Washington, June 12.—By steaming over the waters of the Pacific Ocean at an average speed of 29.2 knots an hour for 24 hours, the giant aircraft carrier Lexington established a world record day's run of 700 nautical miles.

When the commander of the 33,000-ton vessel advised the Navy Department of the achievement yesterday, the Lexington was traveling 30.4 knots, and indications were that she may surpass the record of the first 24 hours of her 2,280-trip from San Pedro, California, to Honolulu, where she was due to arrive to-day at 1 p.m.

Captain A. W. Marshall, skipper of the powerful craft, reported that the vessel weighted anchor at San Pedro at noon Saturday, and Sunday noon her position was latitude 31.21, longitude 131.15 west.

The time taken in getting the vessel under full speed from her anchorage was included in the computation of the average speed, which surpassed the record run made by the light cruiser Omaha of 690 miles for the best day's run from San Francisco to Honolulu in 1923.

Counsel for the prosecution, rising to reply, took their measure at a glance. "Gentlemen," he said, "let it be understood to begin with that I am not boring for water!"

YO HO, AND $250,000 IN RUM! So heavily loaded with rum that the port holes were barely six incres above the water line, the former Canadian lightship Geronimo was captured in the Straits of Mackinaw, north of Detroit, recently by the cutter Cook. Here is a view of the forward deck of the Geronimo, with part of the cargo, which was estimated at $250,000 in value.

PRINCE RUPERT TO CARRY KIWANIANS

C.N.R. Steamer Will Call at Victoria on Sunday; no Stewart Service This Week

With more than 200 members of Kiwanis International from the New England states of the United States bound for the Kiwanis International Convention, to be held in Seattle from June 17 to 21, the Canadian National coastwise steamer Prince Rupert will call at Victoria on Sunday afternoon en route from Prince Rupert to Seattle.

The Prince Rupert will dock at the Evans, Coleman and Evans pier in the Inner Harbor at 3 o'clock on Sunday afternoon and remain until 5 o'clock. Entire accommodation on the Rupert has been reserved for the Kiwanis members en route to the convention. These 200 members from the Eastern states traveled across Canada by Canadian National Railways and will reach Prince Rupert on Friday afternoon, where they will board the steamer for Vancouver, Victoria and Seattle. The Rupert will reach Vancouver Sunday morning and sail again at 10.30 a.m., arriving here in the afternoon. Several of the Victoria Kiwanians bound for the convention will sail on the Rupert from here for Seattle, it is expected.

STEWART SERVICE INTERRUPTED

The Prince Rupert will leave Vancouver to-morrow for Prince Rupert and will arrive there on Friday morning. There she will turn around and come south again instead of taking her usual run to Stewart, at the head of Portland Canal. After disembarking her passengers at Seattle on June 17, the Rupert will return to Vancouver in time to take her first sailing out of that city for Skagway, which is timed for 8 o'clock Monday evening.

SAN FRANCISCO SHIPPING

San Francisco, June 12.—Reorganization of the Gulf conference, which was disrupted recently by the withdrawal of the Redwood line from that body, will probably come about this week, local shipping authorities declared to-day. It was reported that all of the lines engaged in the trade are making a combined effort to restore harmony. The reports also had it that the Redwood line has indicated its willingness to consider proposals for the re-establishment of a full conference.

The first vessel of the Dollar Line's transpacific fleet to arrive here under the revised schedule, the President Grant, is due to make port Wednesday from the Orient. The vessel is bringing a full list of cabin passengers, and a number of steerage. The new schedule calling for arrivals on Wednesday will not affect outbound vessels of the fleet. They will still leave port on Friday.

The Maui of the Matson Line and the President Adams of the Dollar Line are due to arrive here to-morrow.

The Maui is coming from the Hawaiian Islands, a full cargo in her holds, and the Adams is coming from the east coast, with a full list of passengers.

with Union Aviation Gasoline... The longest ocean hop in history

10:11 P. M. "There's our friend the moon peeping over the clouds." Courageous men express the pent up surge of ravaging emotions simply. Going into a black night of churning winds—of unknown colossal hazards, with only the yawning, writhing buffet of a mad sea as an alternative—two Australians and two Americans side by side, have blazed the uncharted air trail over the world's greatest expanse of water wastes.

They deserve success.

There's not the slightest whimper in this message to an anxious world. It just says, "we know the pull ahead—we have taken a tighter grip." This great achievement is due to no one individual circumstance. It is the result of fearlessly, perfectly coordinating the modern inventions of this fast age. We are glad Union Aviation Gasoline played its part so well.

Langford

Langford, June 11.—Mr. and Mrs. Richmond E. Bayles and son, Kenneth, from Winnipeg, are visiting Mrs. C. Bayles of Goldstream Road.

The first of the series of Wednesday night's dances will be held this week at Langford Lakeside.

The informal costume dance given by Miss Jean Donald on Friday evening at Langford Lakeside was very enjoyable. Ozard's orchestra supplied the music.

The new wooden courts of the Langford Lawn Tennis Club on the Goldstream Road were formally opened on Saturday afternoon in the presence of a large number of patrons by P. Stewart Yates, president.

Mr. Yates thanked all supporters. C. H. O'Halloran served the first ball, while R. H. Pooley received it. A. Norman Brown was master of ceremonies.

The opening sets were played by Mrs. A. Bayles and Mrs. H. A. Hincks versus Mrs. E. LeQuesne and Mrs. N. Willson, R. H. Pooley and E. LeQuesne and C. H. O'Halloran and S. Turner.

The courts are 114 feet long by 96 feet on cement bases.

Great credit is due to the energetic committee, who comprised: President, J. Stuart Yates; first vice-president, E. LeQuesne; secretary and treasurer, A. Norman Brown; committee, A. E. Bayles, S. Turner; tea committee, Mrs. A. E. Bayles, Mrs. E. LeQuesne, Miss Ada Simpson.

The rustic seats made at a previous bee and the silver challenge cup, presented by C. Wenger, were much admired. Mrs. C. H. O'Halloran offered a trophy for the junior players.

Among the visitors present were: Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Pooley, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. O'Halloran, Mr. and Mrs. D. Ramsay, Mr. and Mrs. F. Stewart Yates, Mr. and Mrs. Donald, Mr. and Mrs. Hodgkinson, Mrs. D. B. F. Bullen and Mrs. and Miss Morrison.

Metchosin

Metchosin, June 12.—A most enjoyable stag party was held last Friday when Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Ellwood entertained the male members of the tennis club at their home, "Ivy-Green."

Tennis was enjoyed during the afternoon, several close contested games being played. The courts are now in excellent condition, owing to the hard work done on them by several of the members, headed by the efficient president, Mr. R. R. Gibbs. A delightful supper was served by the hostess, after which the guests were entertained with bridge, billiards and music.

The guests invited included Messrs. R. R. Gibbs, E. E. Bradford, R. S. Peecock, D. Aimers, R. Mathews, Stretton, Cornwall, Rev. H. M. Bolton, Dr. C. P. Brown and Dr. T. Gaddes.

Sunkist

California Oranges

Modern physicians now prescribe oranges in the treatment of ACIDOSIS for their potent alkaline reaction, both in children and older persons. Vitamins and mineral salts of oranges are a body building and good health necessity.

Eat Sunkist Oranges or drink Sunkist Orange Juice daily as a health measure. Open the day with orange juice. Eat an orange salad for lunch rather than rich, heavy foods; an orange dessert is worthy the finest dinner!

Workers and children, especially, should eat oranges regularly. The school lunch box should contain an orange rather than sweets, if health is to be guarded. Oranges are particularly valuable as an after-school refreshment and "pick-up."

Juicy, sweet California Sunkist Oranges are lusciously good—and available every day in the year. They are the choice for quickly made salads and desserts because they are easiest to peel, separate or slice. The meat is firm and tender.

There is a size for every pocketbook—all are of true Sunkist quality.

To be sure of getting California Sunkist Oranges look for the trade-mark on the fruit and on the wrapper.

POLICE AND INSIDE STAFF GET PENSIONS

City Extends Superannuation Act to Two Further Departments

Council Covers Routine Agenda in Committee Reports

The institution of the Provincial Superannuation Act in respect to the city police force, as at July 1, and similar provision for the application of the pension plan to the inside staff of the city services on December 1 passed the City Council last night, on the recommendation of the civic service committee.

The action was taken without discussion. Only the outside employees of the city now remain unprovided for in the pension regulations, the firemen being brought on the plan some time ago. The council voted on a routine list of committee reports in quick succession.

The investment of $16,000 in Victoria City debentures on the sinking fund account will be made with the Royal Financial Corporation, to yield five per cent.

Saanich will be asked to pay a balance owing on the payments due to the city and Oak Bay in regard to the northeast sewer connections. The council ratified a further sewer connection on Lansdowne Road.

An account for $350 by D. R. McCrimmon for work for the B. C. Agricultural Association at the Willows was ordered paid.

The tender of J. M. Bell for two rock drills was accepted at a total of $360.

The city will set back a fence at the Garbally Road yards and rent the land so recovered to the Dalziel Box Company at $5 a year.

A complaint of tardy collection of garbage at a Rockland Avenue residence will be answered by the explanation that the city's system embraces a ten-day collection period; but that that involves ten working days, to the exclusion of holidays and Sundays. Under this it might be possible to have collection two weeks apart, but never as much as three weeks, it was stated. The only remedy would be to vote increased sums for the collection system, it was recalled, and this had been rejected by the council at the first of the year.

LAND SALES

The land committee reported sales amounting to $1,000 cash for a portion of a lot on Hollywood Crescent, and a lot on South Lotus Street. Old city buildings on Russell Street are to be demolished.

The health committee reported it was unable to provide the authority for the city to proceed against tax-free owners of houseboats on the Gorge waters, unless the circumstances warranted action on the grounds of health.

The fire wardens recommended partition changes at the Victoria West Fire Hall, to cost $500, and which will save heating costs by the closing of the upper story and remodeling the ground floor parts of the old building.

The resignation of Ernest B. Halsall from the office of the city water collector was accepted by the council, with regret, Mr. Halsall having severed his connection with the city to take up private employment.

The city zoning by-law was piloted by Alderman J. B. Clearihue through its final stages, and passed by the council. The only change made in the final draft of the measure, last night was the shortening of the unzoned area between Douglas and Quadra Streets to East Yew Street on its eastern boundary. This removes the unzoned area slightly further from Quadra Street from its previous and tentative boundaries, which came within 175 feet of that road. J. H. Doughty-Davies, who prepared the city zoning maps and drawings, was thanked for his services at the close of his work.

From the Begg Motor Company the city will buy two one-ton Chevrolet trucks with extra transmission for a total of $1,904 for the two. The trucks are for use in the public works department, and will have special bodies fitted at the city's own shops. One replaces a horse and cart.

The council voted the annual grant of $3,533 to the Victoria Saanich beaches and parks committee's budget for 1928, and Saanich will grant a like sum to the same purpose, on the basis of a mutual agreement.

HOME GARDEN CONTEST OPENS

Extra Class Has Been Added This Year

The Victoria Horticultural Society has again included in its entries the conducting of a home garden competition, much along the lines of former years, but with the addition of an extra class.

This class has been added to meet the request of a number of intending competitors who occasionally employ paid help. The competition is divided into three classes: Class A for gardens comprising 7,200 superficial feet and over; class B for gardens less than 7,200 superficial feet, and class C for gardens not restricted to size, and paid help may occasionally be employed.

In promoting this competition the society has in mind the educational value, with a view towards greater efficiency in the art of decorative and productive gardening and the beautification of the city as a whole. It is not confined to members of the society, anyone residing within the two and one-half-mile circle being eligible for the competition.

CHALLENGE CUPS

In addition to the challenge cups for each class, attractive cash prizes are being given. All competitors who obtain sixty-five per cent total points will receive awards of merit. The judging of all gardens will have been completed by July 14 to permit any competitors desiring to place exhibits in any local exhibition. A score card and regulations have been compiled for the guidance of competitors and can be secured from the secretary, F. E. Boulter, 1465 Woodlands Road, or phone 943L. Entries are expected to be made with the secretary no later than June 16.

"I am gratified to observe that the interest and benefit of ex-service men and of their dependents have had particularly close and sympathetic attention during the session.

NEW DEPARTMENT

"The amalgamation of the Department of Soldiers' Civil Re-establishment and the Department of Health in the one department, to be known as the Department of Pensions and National Health accords with a natural evolution and is a step which should serve to promote efficiency and economy in administration.

ST. LAWRENCE SCHEME

"The report of the national advisory committee on the St. Lawrence waterway project, together with the views expressed thereon by the Government of the United States in an exchange of correspondence which was submitted to Parliament at the present session, will continue to receive careful consideration. In this connection provision has been made for referring to the courts certain questions as to Federal and Provincial jurisdiction with respect to navigation and water powers.

AVIATION GAINS

"The offer of assistance in the formation of civil flying clubs has met with a widespread response. Flying training has already been started by clubs both in eastern and western Canada. The construction of the airship mooring tower at St. Hubert aerodrome, near Montreal, is being pressed with energy.

NEW COMMISSIONER

"The appointment by His Majesty's Government in Great Britain of a high commissioner to represent its interests in Canada has been received with much satisfaction.

"The appropriations of this session will enable steps to be taken shortly to establish Canadian legations in France and Japan. It is gratifying to know that the arrangements recently made for the further restriction of immigration from Japan, combined with the exchange of Ministers between Japan and Canada, give promise of affording a satisfactory solution of this long-standing question.

ANTI-WAR PACT

"The Canadian Government has learned with deep interest of the proposals which the Government of the United States, following extended discussions with the Government of France, has advanced for the renunciation of war and, in accord with His Majesty's other Governments, has accepted the invitation of the United States to participate in the signature of a multi-lateral pact directed to this end and which it is earnestly hoped will materially strengthen the cause of peace throughout the world.

"Members of the House of Commons:

"I thank you for the provision you have made for the public service.

"Honorable Members of the Senate:

"Members of the House of Commons:

"Abundant evidence surrounds us of the increasing prosperity of our country. For this and other blessings I join with you in humble gratitude to Divine Providence."

C.N.R. HOTEL DISCUSSION

One of the last measures approved by the House was the bill providing $39,000,000 for the Canadian National Railways. Yesterday forenoon the bill was debated. It was passed before the noon adjournment. The debate included a discussion of the C.N.R. hotel plans at Vancouver and Halifax.

DUNNING SPEAKS

Hon. Charles Dunning, Minister of Railways, said the position of the Government respecting the C.N.R. hotel in Vancouver had always been one of how soon, having regard to the finances of the country, it could be started. The Government had always opposed the plan to have private interests build the hotel and then lease it to the Canadian National Railways. When the Conservatives were in power in 1926, the same pressure from Vancouver was exerted upon them as upon the previous Government. And, while the Conservatives had not signed an agreement, half a million dollars had been spent on the strength of an order-in-council.

Mr. Dunning read a letter from Sir Henry Thornton, president of the C.N.R., to Sir Henry Drayton, Minister of Finance, in July, 1926, setting out the terms of a proposed agreement with Mr. Evans and Col. Ryan of Vancouver. Mr. Evans and Col. Ryan were to proceed to construct the hotel on a cost plus seven and a half per cent basis. Sir Henry had included with his letter a draft of the proposed order-in-council, which was later passed.

The Conservatives, said Mr. Dunning, had yielded to the pressure which the Liberal Government had resisted. Was this the business method of which Mr. Bennett spoke so much?

Speaking of the Halifax hotel project, Mr. Dunning emphasized that the loss of money on hotels by railways was not the chief factor to be considered in such matters, for it was well known that hotels connected with railway systems existed because of the contribution they made to the traffic of the railway. As to the possible loss on the new Lord Nelson Hotel in Halifax, he had just received information that morning that the hotel, although not yet opened, was all booked up for next Winter.

OPPOSED BY BENNETT

Saying he wished to deal with the proposed expenditure of $1,250,000 upon an additional modern hotel at Halifax, where a modern hotel was already approaching completion, Hon. R. B. Bennett, Conservative leader, said the existing enterprise was more than sufficient for that city. Private interests had sought subscriptions and all branches of commercial activity in Halifax had subscribed. Now, however, with the hotel scheduled for opening on Trafalgar Day this year, and before one dollar had been spent on the proposed Canadian National Railways hotel, Parliament was asked to vote $1,250,000 on this Canadian National Railways enterprise.

VANCOUVER BUILDING

Regarding the C.N.R. hotel plan for Vancouver, Mr. Bennett said he wished to deny the suggestion of Mr. Dunning that the order-in-council passed by the Conservative Government in August, 1926, was for "political purposes."

A letter from Sir Henry Thornton to Sir Henry Drayton, then Acting Minister of Railways, dated August 3, 1926, was read by Mr. Bennett. In this letter, Sir Henry Thornton enclosed a draft order-in-council prepared by himself and directors of the C.N.R. authorizing construction of the Vancouver hotel in settlement of that city's outstanding claims against the old Canadian Northern.

The order-in-council had been drafted by Sir Henry Thornton, who believed the matter to be urgent. It had been passed, but the agreement had not been signed, said Mr. Bennett. As Minister of Finance at the time, Mr. Bennett had found there was no authority for the passing of a Governor-General's warrant for a sum as large as $3,500,000, which was required for this projected hotel.

BILLS FALL BY WAY

When prorogation came, four outstanding private bills were still on the order paper of the House and therefore went into the discard. They were the Great Lakes and Atlantic Canal bill, the Sun Life and the Bell Telephone bills and the bill for construction of a railway from Port Burwell, Ont., to London, Ont. Private members' bills which likewise went into the discard were the Senate bill for the establishment of divorce courts in Ontario, the Jacobs bill to remove the necessity of re-electing members of the House of Commons on acceptance of office, the Jacobs bill in regard to return tickets on railways, the Church bill respecting bank mergers, the Chevrier bill on greyhound racing, the Geary bill on investigation of telephone and telegraph subsidiaries and the Church bill on lapsed insurance policies.

EXPERT TALKS ON MARKETING

W. A. Landreth, Egg Pool Leader, at Chamber of Commerce To-night

Co-operative marketing of eggs and poultry on the prairies has established the industry on a permanent and profitable basis, said W. A. Landreth, president of Canadian Poultry Producers' Limited, who will speak at a meeting to-night in the Chamber of Commerce under the auspices of the agricultural group.

The quality of eggs marketed has also been improved through the education work carried on by the pool until it has changed the situation of five years ago when sixty per cent of undergrade eggs were placed on the market to the present record of seventy-five per cent overgrades being produced.

It has also been instrumental in raising the value of the product from approximately 16 cents a dozen to the prairie producer to 23 to 25 cents a dozen during the production period.

In British Columbia there is a year round production, and in averaging the value of the product it is possible to average over a period of twelve months. On the prairies eggs are at the lowest market value from the middle of March to the end of July. While eggs on the prairies go to a price of approximately 65 cents to 75 cents a dozen during the Winter months, production is so small that returns over a twelve month production period cannot be averaged.

People of the prairies are generally united to market their products, said Mr. Landreth, instancing the wheat pool as the largest co-operative organization of its kind in the world. Whenever co-operative marketing is discussed the small producers receive the same consideration as those in the wheat pool.

At the meeting to-night at the Chamber of Commerce Mr. Landreth will discuss co-operative marketing in general as well as in connection with the poultry industry.

ALDERMEN FOR FREEDOM CEREMONY

The privilege of being the mover and seconder of the formal resolution that will confer the freedom of the city on R. P. Butchart proved in such keen demand before the City Council last night that balloting was resorted to to select the two nominees for that honor. The lot fell to Alderman E. S. Woodward, as mover, and Alderman John Harvey, as seconder. Aldermen William Marchant and R. A. C. Dewar, who sponsored the resolution conferring the freedom of the city on Viscount Willingdom last year, were counted out of the running by reason of that privilege. The public ceremony will take place at 11 a.m. on June 22 at the City Hall in the presence of municipal leaders of Victoria and its three municipal neighbors. With the honor of spokesmen goes the duty of delivering an address appropriate to the occasion.

PAIN DEPARTS WHEN OBSCURE NERVES SEVERED

Expert Surgeon Tells Medical Convention of Recent Discoveries

Remarkable success in removal of pain has followed surgical experiments upon the little-known sympathetic nervous system, Dr. F. A. C. Scrimger, V.C., of McGill University, to-day told the convention of the British Columbia Medical Association at the Empress Hotel.

The nerves described have no direct relation to the general nervous system centring in the spine, but radiate from independent centres in various portions of the body.

One of the functions of the sympathetic nervous system appears to be control of the heat of the body, Dr. Scrimger said, telling of operations to change the blood supply which had been successful, though the speaker doubted the permanence of the results achieved.

PAIN VANISHED

Dr. Scrimger believed that the major field of operative success on these little-known nerve clusters will be found in prompt elimination of pain not traceable to other causes. He told of many successful instances.

Why relief of pain follows severance of these obscure nerves is unknown, Dr. Scrimger said, but ability to get a patient from a bed of pain, with restoration of strength through activity in occupation, merited close attention being paid to surgical treatment of carefully selected cases.

BRAIN HEMORRHAGES

Dr. Fred H. MacKay of McGill dealt with remarkable brain hemorrhages, the cause of which has not yet been located. He reviewed methods of giving relief by withdrawal of spinal fluid, which he believed warranted, citing many instances.

Dr. Andrew Hunter of Toronto University dealt with the measurement of the heat and energy developed by the human system, showing methods of measuring the basic heat output of a patient and presenting intricate calculations whereon simple tables have been prepared for use of family physicians.

WILL BE FIRST COMMONER TO BE FREEMAN

Victoria, Saanich, Oak Bay and Esquimalt Honor R. P. Butchart

A colorful ceremony will mark the presentation of the Freedom of the City to R. P. Butchart, to take place at the City Hall at 11 a.m. on June 22. Victoria, Saanich, Oak Bay and Esquimalt are joining hands in a joint ceremony in which a gold key, symbolic of the honor, will be presented to Mr. Butchart at a civic ceremony.

Acting Mayor P. R. Brown and Reeve William Crouch, Saanich, completed the list of invited guests to-day, the number being aribtrarily fixed at 100, due to the limited space in the City Council Chamber. Among those to be invited are His Honor the Administrator, Chief Justice J. A. Macdonald; Hon. J. D. MacLean, the Premier; members of the Provincial Cabinet, the Mayors, Reeves and Aldermen and Councillors of the four municipalities of Greater Victoria; representatives of the naval and military forces, representatives of the church, institutions and service club.

The band of the Sixteenth Canadian Scottish will be in attendance. The ceremony will include the signing of the roll of freemen, the taking of the oath of fidelity to the duties of the office, and the actual presentation of the silver chest containing the golden key, a scroll containing the city felicitations and the illuminated addresses of the district municipalities.

R. P. Butchart, whose election as a freeman comes as a public tribute of appreciation to Mr. and Mrs. Butchart for their great public service in connection with the maintenance of the gardens at Benvenuto, will be the first commoner in the British Empire outside of Great Britain to be created a freeman. Viscount Willingdon, the Governor-General of Canada, last year accepted the honor at the city's hands, thus becoming the only freeman in Canada. Mr. Butchart will be the second to gain that distinction, as Victoria is the only city in the Empire, apart from Great Britain, where legislative authority has been secured to keep alive an ancient custom associated with the reward for unselfish and meritorious acts connected with public service.

The engraved silver chest in which the golden key will be presented, is now being made, and will follow a similar design to that used in connection with the presentation to His Excellency the Governor-General.

PEACE RIVER DEVELOPMENT IS REVIEWED

Rail Link Would Make Coast Cities Prosper, Kiwanians Told

The prosperity which will be enjoyed by Pacific Coast cities, following rail connection with the Peace River country, brought to the attention of the Kiwanis Club at the Empress Hotel today by Professor E. S. Farr, professor of History and Economics at Victoria College, who recalled that the Peace River country was the route traversed by early explorers bound for the Pacific Coast.

Before any railway connected this Province with Eastern Canada, proponents of the line in 1873 urged selection of the Peace River route, their reports being enthusiastic as to natural resources available and the climatic conditions.

Dr. Dawson, director of the Geological Survey of Canada, in 1879, reported that the Peace River offered at least 31,550 square miles of fertile land, with wild vetch and other native growths of extraordinary luxuriance. He estimated the Peace River capable of producing 300,000,000 bushels of wheat yearly. Other investigators had placed the arable land at not less than 100,000,000 acres in the Peace River area of northern Alberta. Professor Farr said that in 1876 Peace River attracted world attention when Sherman Lawrence won the first prize for wheat at Chicago, and recalled that Herman Trelle had set a world's record, two years ago, when he won the world's championship for both wheat and oats.

The speaker told of his own experiences as a homesteader in Peace River district, describing the remarkable fertility of the soil and the ease of culture.

Mineral resources are abundant, including coal, oil, gold and other metals, and the district is rich in furs and fish, besides its agricultural possibilities. He recalled that Baron Rhondda, Welsh coal magnate, was greatly interested in the future of the Peace River, having built and operated steamers on the lakes and rivers.

MUST SHIP WEST

Mr. Farr considered remarkable the failure of transcontinental railway builders to route their lines through the Peace River area. Lack of communicaitons has prevented development of a territory which could put to work the entire population of British Columbia. He pointed out that the products of this rich area must be marketed on the Pacific seaboard, and that no great coast city can prosper without a prosperous farming hinterland. He believed that before Victoria and Vancouver can grow substantially they must be connected with a large and rich farming country, and the Peace River territory offer such an area, able to provide full car traffic both ways on a linking railway.

"If we open up that country to the Panama Canal shipping route I believe the coast cities can outdo the Eastern cities. We are seeking means and places to put our young people to work. This opportunity awaits our action, to link this rich area up with the Pacific Coast," he concluded.

AT CONVENTION

Because many members of the Kiwanis Club will be attending the International Kiwanis Convention at Seattle, no meeting of the club will be held next Tuesday.

Many cars were pledged for transportation of visitors to the city tomorrow from the Seattle convention of the National Credit Men's Association.

Frank Tupman entertained with a baritone solo and a humorous recitation.

STOCK MARKETS — FINANCIAL NEWS — GRAIN MARKETS

TO-DAY'S GRAIN MARKETS

(By Branson, Brown & Co. Limited)

Winnipeg, June 12.—Wheat: The wheat market was very heavy again to-day, with prices breaking from 3 cents to 2⅜ on the extreme dip. Market started off weak based on the cables, which were lower than due, and to the absence of export business. General liquidation was in evidence during the first half of the session, there being little rallying power, support being largely from shorts and buying against bids. On the extreme break there was a good class of buying of the October that was credited to seaboard and while there was some buying of July by exporters on the break the volume was only small, and the upturns were hard to hold as offerings again increased.

New York reported that a fair Manitoba business was worked on the break with sales in all positions estimated at 700,000 bushels, but there was not much evidence of this business locally. The cash market was extremely dull, with apparently a very poor demand for all grades.

Offerings continued small and all spreads were about unchanged. Broomhall reports a total lack of demand for foreign wheat of any sort. There is accumulation of Argentine wheat at Liverpool, but stocks elsewhere in Europe are said to be small. Millers in Liverpool have large stores of Argentine wheat and are not anxious to make further purchases at present. A few showers were received in Western Canada the past twenty-four hours, and further rains are falling to-day.

Good rains were received in North and South Dakota, also Minnesota. Canadian Government's report, placing conditions at 100, about as expected. Bradstreet's world's available supplies decreased 5,577,000 bushels, but are much larger than last year. The market should be due to some reaction following these breaks, but it will require good export business if up turns are to hold. Winnipeg futures closed from 2 cents to 1¾ lower.

Coarse grains — These markets were also very weak. Demand was again very limited with no export business reported in oats, barley or rye. There was considerable liquidation in all grains, holders evidently getting tired. Oats closed 2 to 1 cent lower, barley about 1 cent lower and rye 1⅞ to 2⅞ lower.

Flax—This market declined in sympathy with the weakness in the general grain list. There was not much pressure, but demand was very thin. Closing figures about 1 cent lower.

Chicago, June 12.—Wheat: Rather general and generous rainfall in Minnesota and the Dakotas, coupled with bearish construction of the Canadian official crop report of yesterday afternoon caused very sharp declines in wheat prices. Heavy rains and winds in Kansas were overlooked as a market factor, although the general use of combines in that territory makes this character of weather an unfavorable factor. In southern and especially southeastern Kansas, floods, winds and hail have done some serious damage, though possibly not efficient to material reduce a brilliant prospect for the state as a whole.

Export business in Canadian wheats in fair volume developed on the break, but hardly enough to offset fresh arrivals at Winnipeg, which are breaking records for this season of the year.

First car of new wheat arrived in Fort Worth, Texas, from Oklahoma and showed fine quality and test were well as protein contents.

Short crops in Europe are still predicted and Canada will be called upon for substantial quantities until new crops are available. Two hard wheat at Kansas City to-day sold 142½ to 148.

Corn: The tone of this market was steady throughout the session and the close was slightly improved, in spite of the weak wheat market. There was an improved and somewhat more general demand for cash corn and receipts under these conditions were not burdensome. We can see no indication of any inherent weakness in the corn situation.

Liverpool is due to open ⅜ down to ⅛ up on wheat in morning.

WHITNEY LETTER

New York, June 12 (By Branson Brown and Co. Ltd.).—Whitney of the Wall Street Financial Bureau says to-day:

"The position is taken that the bottom of this reaction has already been established and the rebound will start from this level.

"The advance in call money is a reflection of demands incident to tax day and mid-month settlements and comes at a time when there is distinct easing in time money rates. There is nothing to alter the picture for lower money rates even though, for a few days, the call loan rate, due to temporary influences, is firmly maintained or advanced slightly. Exceptionally good buying was in the market Saturday and considerably more Monday. That this buying has not brought higher prices is not unusual; in fact, it would be unusual if it did bring higher prices, as buying of this type has been in evidence for a few days.

"The keynote of the speech of the Republican National Convention, which will undoubtedly be printed around 1 o'clock to-day, will not eliminate President Coolidge as a candidate for renomination. So far as combined averages are concerned, the decline which has taken place in the past eight days has wiped out the entire advance registered this year. That is amply sufficient correction for any excess which may have been indulged in."

New York, June 12 (By Branson Brown & Co. Ltd.).—Stockbrokers' opinions to-day are:

Bache—We believe the character of buying on further weakness will be decidedly stronger than the selling.

Hornblower and Weeks—We do not feel that the period of liquidation has entirely run its course, and therefore we are hesitant in taking a position on the constructive side of the market.

Bond Market Firm Despite Stock Break

New York, June 12.—The bond market was irregular to-day, prices moving within narrow limits. Volume of trading was only nominal.

Anaconda Copper 7s provided the only showing of strength in the industrial group, advancing more than a point.

Minneapolis and St. Louis 5s moved to a new top at 20½, but other rails continued downward, with Great Northern 7s touching the year's low and Missouri Pacific 5s and Virginia Railway 5s dropping to new lows for the year. Weakness in the latter issue reflected that of the stock.

Public utilities were under pressure, Brooklyn Union Gas 5½s selling off a point.

The foreign group was steady. Kingdom of Norway 5s, which declined a point, showed the greatest loss.

United States Government bonds were irregular, Liberty showing small gains.

B.C. CROP OUTLOOK BETTER

Ottawa, June 12.—In British Columbia the condition of wheat, hay and clover, alfalfa and pastures is reported as better than last year; of oats, barley, rye and peas as the same as last year; while mixed grains are shown as poorer, a government crop report states.

PUGET SOUND POWER DIVIDEND

New York, June 12.—An initial quarterly dividend of $1.05 a share has been declared on the $5 prior preferred stock of Puget Sound Power and Light Company covering the period from May to July 15, and the regular quarterly of $1.50 on the preferred, payable July 16, to stock or record June 15.

MOTORS PASSED BEST SALES PERIOD

New York, June 12.—There is coincident talk in the market of the motors having entered the final period of the best sales and from now on increasing competition would be witnessed.

London, June 12.—Bar silver, 27 9-16d per ounce. Money, 3½ per cent. Discount rates: Short bills, 3 11-16 to 3¾ per cent.; three months' bills, 3¾ per cent.

Wall Street To-day

(By B.C. Bond Corporation's Leased Wire)

BIG BREAK WIPES OUT FORTUNES

New York, June 12.—So heavy was the selling in the market to-day, that at the close the tape was running an hour behind.

At 3 o'clock, Radio was being quoted at 173, while it was actually selling at 165 on the floor.

New York, June 12.—Nearly every other stock on the board to-day broke to new low prices for the year.

New York, June 12.—To-day's market break, following the severe breaks of yesterday, and the weak markets of the last week, produced the most panicky conditions for three years in brokers' offices throughout the country.

In every city, brokers were calling for more margins, and clients were speeding to the brokerage offices with fat cheques or pockets and satchels bulging with bonds.

Those who did not heed the calls, or could not pay up more, had to be sold out at the market and pocket their losses.

New York, June 12.—Thousands of speculators in Bancitaly stock and other popular issues, were wiped out completely by the big market break yesterday and to-day.

Losses have been enormous. Many small holders have seen their savings of years, which they decided to gamble with, wiped out in a few minutes since Monday morning.

Big fortunes pyramided up during the last couple of years melted into almost nothing in a few hours.

New York, June 12.—The evening edition of The Wall Street Journal says: "Around noon the market gave some slight evidence of a temporarily oversold condition and a small rally was started which, however, did not last long. This was the only relief all through the session from a steady stream of liquidation. It was not a question of the heavy selling of unseasoned, non-dividend paying stocks but rather a question of continued heavy offerings of the recognized industrial and rail common stocks.

Banks withdrew some $10,000,000 to $15,000,000 around mid-day and the supply of call money at six per cent appeared to be limited but the rate remained at six per cent all through the session. The continued firmness in money was explained as due to preparations for June 15 tax payments and government operations but this explanation did not serve to lighten the volume of liquidation which became somewhat more insistent in the afternoon.

The market did not give appearance of being particularly disorderly but it was apparent that the monotony of the selling, with no relief, was straining badly what confidence remained among those who held speculative positions. Facilities were swamped and at the close the tape was reported to be one hour behind the market.

A few stocks like General Motors, for instance, gave some signs of being supported but many observers felt that this support was rendered for the purpose of preventing rank disorder rather than with the purpose of initiating a rally.

SUGAR HOLDING UNLOADED

New York, June 12.—The period of inactivity which has existed in the raw sugar market for several days was broken today with sales of 28,000 bags of Porto Rican now loading to a local refiner at 4.27 delivered.

This represented a decline of 1-32c from the last previous sale.

While additional quantities of nearby duty frees were available at the same price, Cuban holders were asking fractionally higher.

In refined sugar prices were unchanged at 6.05 to 6.10 for fine granulated. Withdrawals were again of liberal character, but new business was light.

Montreal Stocks

(By B.C. Bond Corporation's Direct Wire)

Montreal, June 12.—There are still some weak spots in the local list of securities, such issues as Steel of Canada, Port Alfred Paper, Canadian Brewing and National Breweries having touched new low levels this morning but on the whole a rallying tendency prevailed, and many stocks showed gains at the noon close.

At the opening Abitibi dropped to 60¼ but it later recovered to 61½. Canada Power and Paper at 36 was half lower, Brompton at 46¼, quarter higher. Frazier at 63, three points higher. Wayagamack closed unchanged at 93 after declining to 92. Price Brothers opened at 91 and finished the session at 92, up half. The weakest spot among the paper issues was Port Alfred which closed at 80, bringing the total decline from the recent high level to 70 points, at the close. It firmed to 84½.

Lyall Construction performed in a satisfactory manner gaining four points to 68. International Nickel from a low of 90¼ sold up to 92¼ and closed with a net advance of ¾ at 91¾. Dominion Bridge closed at 81½ for the first preferred. Alcohol eased off to 40⅞ and then raised to 41¼ a decline of half ponit. Canadian Brew receded 2¼ points to 30½.

Quite impressive was the display of strength given by Brazilian despite heavy offerings the price rallied from 52½ to 54 and then settled around 53, closing at 52⅞. Power Corporation sold as low as 72½ and closed 73, down one point net. Montreal Power was unchanged at 102 and Quebec Power at 85 showed a loss of one point. Opening half down at 91, Shawinigan rallied to 93 and closed at the top. Winnipeg Electric after making a new low of 107, recovered to 110 where it closed a net gain of two points.

Pitblado to Be Express Rate Counsel

Isaac Pitblado, K.C., prominent Winnipeg lawyer, has been appointed counsel for British Columbia in the Railway Commission's forthcoming hearing on express rates, it was announced at the Parliament Buildings to-day.

JOINT APPLICATION

Mr. Pitblado's appointment followed interchanges between the governments of the four provinces. When the prairie governments finally agreed on Mr. Pitblado, the British Columbia authorities accepted their proposal and appointed him also.

G. G. McGeer, K.C., acted in express and freight rate hearings before for this Province, but in the present application the western provinces agreed that they should join in a common application, with one counsel.

COCAINE BRINGS PRISON TERMS

In Vancouver Two Three-year and One Six-month Sentence Given

Vancouver, June 12.—"It is sad to think young men who have done well should for the sake of a few dollars engage in this horrible traffic," said Magistrate Shaw to-day in disposing of the cases of G. B. Batard, J. Lebourgne and M. Phillipe, awaiting sentence for having a large quantity of cocaine in possession.

Batard and Lebourgne were sentenced to three years in the penitentiary, with fines of $500, in default of payment of which a further term of six months will be added.

Leborgne was sentenced to a second term of three years for having in his possession a revolver, the sentences in the latter case to run concurrently.

SIX-MONTH TERM

Phillipe, on account of his youth and the fact that the evidence showed he had no knowledge of the nature of the contents of the bottles he carried until shortly before the arrest, further that he was not a member of the ship's crew at La Havre, where the narcotics were purchased, was given a term of six months, with a fine of $200, in default of payment of which a further three months must be served.

Counsel for the accused informed the court that both Batard and Lebourgne had excellent war records, the latter receiving the Croix de Guerre and being twice mentioned in dispatches. Both he and Batard had worked their way up in the service of the steamship company owning the Sonora, of which they were members of the crew, and neither had a mark against his name until the present.

MAY BE NO LIBERAL IN CARIBOO FIGHT

Quesnel, B.C., June 12.—There will be no three-cornered contest in Cariboo if a resolution passed at a Liberal meeting here carries at a nomination convention called for June 13 at Williams Lake. The resolution recommends that no Liberal candidate be placed in the field to contest the riding against G. A. Stoddart, who was returned at the last election as a Progressive and who is now running as a straight Independent.

Whether or not the eight delegates appointed at the meeting will be able to swing the convention is a matter of conjecture. The names of J. M. Yorston, former M.P.P. for Cariboo, and R. N. Campbell of Horsefly, it is said, will go before the convention.

Roderick McKenzie of Williams Lake is the Conservative candidate.

TO BUILD TRAIL TO ALPINE HUT

Government to Assist Alpine Club Resort, Adjoining Sooke Park

Land which the Alpine Club of Canada is purchasing from the Provincial Government adjoins the recently-created Sooke Mountain Park, and is not part of the reserve itself, it was explained at the Lands Department today. The club is purchasing 149 acres from the Government in the Sooke district on the northwest borders of the park, which comprises 1,600 acres.

The purchase money received by the Provincial Government from the Alpine Club will go into the consolidated revenue of the Province. The Government has agreed, however, to expend a sum in the construction of a trail from the Canadian National Railway to the proposed site of the Alpine Club hut in its area, it was announced.

The Victoria branch of the B.C. Provincial Rabbit Breeders' Association will hold their first parlor show of the season at the Y.M.C.A. on Tuesday, June 19, entries to be in by 7 o'clock that evening and judging to start at 8 o'clock. Ribbons will be awarded. Further particulars can be had from the secretary, Frank P. Boucher, 627 Monterey Avenue. Phone 1294L1.

PEND BREAKS; REPORT COMING

Toronto, June 12.—Pend Oreille crashed through the 15.00 mark on the standard exchange here to-day and made another new low at 14.00. After closing yesterday at 15.25-15.35, the stock this morning opened off about 75 points and flopped heavily.

Vancouver, June 12 (By R. F. Castle Leased Wire).—It is reported over our private wire from Winnipeg that an official statement in connection with Pend Oreille Lead and Zinc Company will be issued Thursday of this week. Since last Winter, when this stock touched 23.00, very little official information has been given out by the company.

Montreal, June 12.—With prices of everything else breaking, Coast Copper sold up 4.00 a share here to-day to 33.00, after closing yesterday at 29.00. News that bornite has been encountered in the 900-1,200-foot levels, that the showings are getting richer and more extensive as the shafts go down, that the company is now going ahead with a large electrification project and has the last few weeks been carrying out preliminary surveys for the railway to the coast, is responsible for the jump up in the stock here.

Work Resumed On Silver Tip

Superintendent J. V. Clegg reports that work was resumed on May 9 on the Silver Tip and since then drifting on the vein has continued at the rate of a foot a day. On June 1 the face was thirty-two feet from where the crosscut tunnel reaches the May F. J. vein. When work closed down last season the face showed three feet of ore assaying about $20 per ton in all values. In driving twenty feet during May, he states the vein widened to six feet and is now ore from wall to wall. A mofied sample taken across this width showed values of $25.30 per ton in silver, lead and zinc. It is expected that another forty feet will bring the drift into much higher grade ore.

Ten tons of freight have been taken in via the new road from the Premier to the Big Missouri. Additional men will be put to work as soon as the surface is clear of snow.

TWO STOCKS CLIMB IN FALLING MARKETS

In the face of Canadian and United States markets on all sides breaking almost wide open to-day and prices melting away between quotations, Bonanza Placer climbed to new high prices, closing at 32-35 on heavy buying from all sides. The earnings from the Leesburg placer operations are proving to be enormous and are far outdistancing the estimates made by Col. C. C. Hodson when he organized the operation last Winter.

Golconda was the only other stock which was strong on the western markets, going to a new high for this move of 76-80 on the development of still more ore at the mine and the approach of operation of the mill, construction of which is near completion.

HOME OIL CLIMBS; GRANDVIEW ACTIVE

Vancouver, June 12 By R. F. Castle (leased wire)—The market was reactionary, the slump on the New York Exchange making itself felt as far West as Vancouver.

Big Missouri opened at 56½ dropped to 55 and rallied back at the close at 56. Cork Province sold at 31, yesterday's close, and finished at 30½. Duthie held firm at 1.18. Georgia River was weak, one sale going through at 35, one point down from yesterday.

Golconda showed distinct interest, sales being steady at 76.

Grandview was the spectacular trader, as usual. When it hit the low at 45, there was a large bullish tendency over 16,000 changed hands, and the bidding was high. There were a few sales at 45½ and 46 at the close she was steady at 45.

Kootenay Florence was at its usual 29½. L. & L. held at 10 to 10½. Lucky Jim sold firm at 13½.

Pend Oreille followed a downward trend in Toronto, opening at 14.50, or 100 points down from yesterday, then dropped to 14.25, rallied to 14.50, and finishe dstrong at this figure.

Premier eased down two points to 2.25.

Ruth Hope from some unknown reason weakened to 55, two points from yesterday's close. Silver Crest was active at 10 to 10½.

Topley-Richfield was not able to recover from its low of yesterday and sold again at 61.

Home Oil sold very strong, 5,500 shares being handled. This stock opened at 2.80 and finished in the blaze of glory at 3.05.

MINE PRICES DROP AS IF HIT BY CLUB

Toronto, June 12 (By R. F. Castle Leased Wire)—The market continued to show reactionary tendencies on the Standard Exchange to-day.

The present downward trend of the New York, Montreal and Toronto industrial exchanges created an air of uncertainty on the mining exchange.

The session opened strong this morning with most stocks showing a tendency to rally. The firm tone was maintained until shortly before the close when it looked as if somebody hit the market with a club, all the leaders breaking sharply.

Noranda sold up to 33.70, but eased off to 31.65 and 31.75, showing a 45-point loss. Amulet at 580, 385 and 385 was off 30 points. On receipt of news that the directors of Teck Hughes had declared a dividend of 10 per cent. and a 20 per cent. bonus, this stock sold off 40 points to 10.60 and 10.85 at the close.

Pend Oreille at 14.09 reported a new low since its sensational climb to 25.00. It closed firmer at 14.50 and 15.00. Reports stated that an official report on Pend Oreille will be forthcoming on Thursday of this week.

Barry Hollinger at 55 and 56 was off six. Sheritt Gordon sold as low as 5.85, but rallied to close at 5.90. Sudbury basin at 9.25 to 9.50 was 75 points down, while Hudson Bay at 17.05 to 17.15 was off 70 and Abana at 2.70 bid was off 5.

Amity is 45 to 45½ was up one point, being one of the few stocks on the board to register a gain.

Total sales for the day were 988,093 shares.

Long Litigation Over, Prince John Mine Plans Development

New York, June 12.—G. Van Rensselaer Cogswell of New York, has been elected president of the Prince John Mining Co. Ltd., succeeding Neville G. Higham, also of New York, who is a member of the reconstituted board of directors of the company. Other officers elected are Robert Mulford, Ogdensburg, N.Y., and James C. Bishop, Philadelphia, vice-presidents, and Le Roy Frost Jr., New York, secretary and treasurer.

The board of directors of the company, in addition to the officers and Mr. Higham, includes Frederick G. Corning, Charles P. Brown and Sidney Green of New York; Harry C. Quackenbush of Pierre, South Dakota, and Humphrey C. Bevan and H. C. Falcon of London, England.

The company owns 638 acres of mining claims in the Portland Canal mining district, British Columbia, on which no development work has been done for some time owing to litigation over the titles to the property. This litigation has finally been settled in favor of the company and Crown grants have been issued to it. Plans are now under way for development work during the coming season.

Market Shake-out Doing Good, Montreal Believes, As It Will Open Way for Good Stocks Again

Montreal, June 12 (By Branson, Brown)—Notwithstanding the high money rate and the confusion as to the political situation, and the fact that further margin calls appear likely to result in more forced selling, the more competent of the local observers were more cheerful to-day.

It was stated that the buying is much better than the selling, and that the shake-out appeared to be doing a lot of good.

This week, it is believed, may prove a critical one, and the result of the liquidation upon brokers' loans totals will be closely watched for as will also the result of the local decline in quoted values upon the attitude of Canadian banks as regards stock market credit.

A reduction of three or four hundred millions in the loan total, it is felt, would place the market on a much more stable basis, and allow stocks of merit to again start discounting their future.

Durant and Cutten Ignored With Their Bullish Statements; Market Starts Down Trend

New York, June 12.—Having broken through previous resistance points, the market, as measured by the averages, apparently has established a down trend. Last week strenuous attempts were made to bolster up security prices. Both Mr. Durant and Mr. Cutten issued bullish pronouncements, but the many stocks, both good and bad, gave signs or being in adequate supply.

The stock market is out of touch with fundamentals and prices of a great many issues are much too high, it is generally thought. Out of the present situation there can develop the most severe decline in stock prices since 1921. There will be trading rallies from time to time, some of which may extend over a two or three-day period. These, however, should be taken advantage of for selling purposes.

On the whole the market is altogether in too dangerous a position to justify the purchase of stocks except in a few isolated instances. Normal speculative sequence would call for a rally early this week. General Electric is unquestionably a high grade stock, but its recent market action has been poor. The stock has been temporarily over-bulled and look for a further price readjustment.

RADIO STRONG FEATURE IN WEAK MARKET

New York, June 12.—One of the high lights of the current general reaction in the market has been the strength of Radio in the last few sessions.

Wall Street persists in its belief that the company will eventually be absorbed entirely or in part by some one of the large communication systems and incidentally increased earnings have paved the way for a dividend basis on the common.

The World says that it is believed that Radio, if the directors so desire, could show earnings this year of about $15 a share, and that a split-up of five-for-one with a dividend of $1.50 on the new stock would be entirely reasonable. In some quarters, it is predicted that if one of the proposed deals goes through, Radio would become worth $600 a share.

Special delivery service between Guatemala and the United States was inaugurated on November 17, 1927.

CHAPTER XXIII

So closely did Vee-Vee feel herself identified with the girl she had never seen, of whom she had scarcely heard until three days before, that it seemed that she was reading about herself as her eyes took in the big headlines:

"Detectives seek missing Crandall heiress."

In the centre of the front page was a picture of Vivian Crandall, with the caption: "Vivian Crnadall, until three weeks ago the Princess Vivian, wife of Prince Ivan Polaski, of Russia's repudiated royalty, is the object of a nation-wide search by private detectives, according to information received from friends in the confidence of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Rufus Worrell Crandall, multi-millionaire society leaders of New York and Newport."

One paragraph of the small type declared: "Prince Ivan, the husband whom the Princess Vivian divorced in Paris, is in New York, registered at the Plaza Hotel. The Prince declares that the heiress divorced him without his knowledge and that he has come to New York to find his former wife and to plead for a reconciliation. He scouts the idea of foul play in connection with the Princess' disappearance, and is convinced that she will reveal her whereabouts in her own good time. He also scoffs at the rumor that the former princess is in hiding with a lover whom she intends to marry as soon as convention will permit. He declares that he has the highest possible opinion of his former wife's honor."

"Trying to court her through the papers," Vee-Vee decided scornfully. "It's a pity he didn't have more concern for his own honor. She might not have divorced him if he had."

Detectives abouring the country for a harried woman who asked nothing but solitude. Then fear for her own self pushed aside her righteous indignation for Vivian Crandall. At any moment now the detectives might get on the scent of the girl at the Minnetonka whom all the guests, and even the management, believed to be Vivian Crandall.

She jumped out of bed, ran to her desk and began to write with furious haste a telegram to Jerry Macklyn. But before she had finished her frantic appeal for him to come and stand by her in the threatened disaster, she stopped and clenched her cold hands against her pounding heart. Why wire him at all? Why not simply pack up and leave? Terror sent her hands flying through the desk drawers, searching for a schedule of trains to New York. There was no train until the 11.52 p.m., the train which Mrs. Bannister and Nan Fosdick had taken last night.

She felt trapped; then came the slow, insinuating thought that she was glad she could not get away until nearly midnight. She would have, would be forced to have, one more precious day with Schuyler Smythe. She would pack, would be ready to leave on the midnight train, but the day at least was hers—and Schuyler's.

She was taking dresses off their hangers to put them into her wardrobe trunks when the telephone rang.

"Is that you, Vee-Vee? Your voice sounds so odd, darling," Schuyler's Smythe's warm, deep voice came caressingly over the wire.

"I—don't feel very well. Oh, it's nothing. I'm just tired, I suppose," Vee-Vee answered, relaxing weakly against the heaped up pillows of her bed.

"I've been waiting for you," his voice came reproachfully. "Have you forgotten that you were to play golf with me this morning?"

She had deferred playing golf as long as possible, conscious that her game was extremely amateurish, undoubtedly miles below the practiced performance of Vivian Crandall. When she had made the engagement she had not intended to keep it, had intended to suggest some other form of diversion at the last minute. But now she took the plunge desperately. She might as well let her golf betray her as anything else.

"I'll be dressed and down in ten minutes, Schuyler. Awfully sorry to have kept you waiting," she told him.

She was about to leave the room, her heart beating quickly at the thought that she would see Schuyler's Smythe in just two more minutes, when a knock sounded upon the door, a discreet, deferential knock. She thought it was the waiter, come to remove her breakfast tray and table, called "Come in!" blithely.

But it was not the waiter. It was the hotel manager, Mr. Thurston, his bald forehead glistening with the dew of embarrassment, his big white hands massaging themselves nervously.

"Miss—er—Cameron, I beg you to pardon this intrusion," he began deprecatingly, "but I felt it my duty to—er—your parents as well as yourself to speak to you."

"I haven't the least idea what you mean," Vee-Vee said, raising her chin arrogantly.

"You have seen yesterday's paper, haven't you, Miss—Cameron?" Thurston asked with more spirit.

"I have seen it, yes," Vee-Vee admitted. "But I still fail to understand—"

"I don't want any scandal, Miss Cameron," the man went on doggedly. "I—we all appreciate the honor of having you at the Minnetonka, and I hope you will stay all Summer. But I—I should very much appreciate it, Miss Cameron, if you would notify your parents that you are here, so that there will be no possible reason for them to blame the management for not having notified them of your presence here. I—I feel the responsibility very keenly, Miss Crandall—"

"My name is Miss Cameron," Vee-Vee interrupted, her voice even and firm. "I told you when I first came that I would trust you to correct any misapprehension that might arise as to my identity." One lobe of her brain, listening critically, told her that she was talking like her old self, like the Vera Victoria Cameron she had been before her transformation.

"I know, Miss Cameron," the manager hastened to assure her. "And I should have been very glad to assist you in your effort to remain here incognito. But with detectives looking for you, likely to pounce upon you at the hotel any minute and cause a scandal—" he hesitated unhappily.

"I assure you, Mr. Thurston, that no detectives are looking for Vera Victoria Cameron, that I am Vera Victoria Cameron, and that you should feel no uneasiness whatever on my account." But as she said the last words, color flooded her pale face. She knew she was lying, that the poor, distracted manager had far more to fear because she was Vera Victoria Cameron than if she were the Vivian Crandall that he took her to be.

"Of course, Miss Crandall—I beg your pardon, Miss Cameron—if you take that attitude there is nothing more that I can say," Thurston told her dejectedly, mopping his glistening bald head with a fresh white handkerchief. "But I do hope that in case anything—anything at all, Miss Cameron—comes up, of an unpleasant character, I mean, that you will absolve the management of the Minnetonka from all blame."

"The only thing that you could be blamed for is for not believing me," Vee-Vee told him severely. "I shall be glad to leave the hotel, Mr. Thurston, if that would relieve your mind."

"Oh, by no means!" the unhappy man protested. "As I have told you, we are honored to have you here. I hope you are comfortable?" He was the solicitous hotel manager again.

"Quite comfortable," Vee-Vee assured him briskly. She was thinking that if she obeyed her impulse to flee from the Minnetonka that night she would be tacitly confessing to Thurston that she was Vivian Crandall, and that he would have every right to notify the Crandall family to watch for her at the Grand Central Station. Her detention in the station would inevitably result in her being hauled before the Crandalls for identification. Their discovery of her resemblance to their daughter—a resemblance that no one would believe had been achieved accidentally, since hair-cut, shaping of eyebrows and coloring of hair could not have been affected without deliberate design—would just as inevitably brand her as an impostor. She might even be arrested for fraud, would undoubtedly find herself smeared all over the front pages. She was trapped, horribly trapped, whether she left the hotel or stayed.

When Thurston had left, looking very unhappy, Vee-Vee again flew to her desk, to complete her telegram to Jerry Macklyn. But again, before she had finished it, she halted, her pencil stabbing victously at the yellow sheet. "No, I'm not going to get him into a mess. I won't let him take the blame. It might cost him his position with Peach Blossom." And again, irrationally, while tears gathered in her vivid green eyes, she murmured, "Dear Jerry!"

But there was no tears in her eyes when she held out her hand to Schuyler Smythe. She was asparkle with eagerness and excitement determined to make the most of the hours that were left to her before the storm broke. For she was sure there would be a storm, and that she would have to face it alone, unless—Her vivid eyes probed the glowing brown eyes of Schuyler Smythe as if she had never looked deep into them before.

BEDTIME STORY

Uncle Wiggily and the Prickle Flower

(Copyright, 1928 by the McClure Newspaper Syndicate)

(By Howard R. Garis)

Uncle Wiggily, with Baby Bunty and the tick bug inside the rabbit gentleman's dump watch, sat on the grass in front of the fence on the rails of which were six queer puzzle words.

"I wonder what it says on that fence?" said Bunty.

"If the Bob Cat or Fox were here we'd make them read the puzzle for us," chuckled Uncle Wiggily.

"Well," said Bunty after a while, during which she had stood on her head trying to read the words, though even that didn't make them come straight. "Well, I know what I'm going to do."

"What are you going to do?" asked Mr. Longears.

"I'm going to crawl under the fence," said the little orphan rabbit, "and see if I can read the puzzle from the other side."

Before Uncle Wiggily could stop her, Bunty started to crawl beneath the fence. But when she was half way under, all of a sudden the fence rails toppled out of the holes in the posts and fell. Poor Bunty would have been caught had not Uncle Wiggily jumped and pulled her out.

"Oh, I'm going to pick that flower," said she.

"Dear me! That was queer!" said Bunty. "Seems to me there ought to be a warning about a fence that's going to fall on you."

"Look! Look!" suddenly ticked the bug in the dumb watch. And, looking, Uncle Wiggily saw that when the rails fell the letters on them had been changed about, so they made words reading:

"Please don't crawl under the fence."

"Oh, that's what it said all the while!" cried Bunty. "It was a warning but we weren't clever enough to read it."

"True enough," said Uncle Wiggily. "The warning must have been plainly printed at one time."

"Yes," agreed Bunty. "And then maybe one of the Bad Chaps knowing the fence might fall on you, Unkie Wig—one of the Bad Chaps mixed the letters so you wouldn't know that it was dangerous to crawl under. I'm glad I did it first, for if you had been caught I couldn't have pulled you out."

"It was lucky," said Mr. Longears. "Well, we'll leave the warning as it is and hop along to see what more adventures will happen."

He and Bunty had not gone very far over the fields and through the woods, with the tick bug ticking away when, all at once near an old stump, Bunty saw a lovely purple flower.

"Oh, I'm going to pick that blossom and take it to Nurse Jane," said the little orphan rabbit.

"No! You had better not pick that," warned Uncle Wiggily, and when Bunty wanted to know why, the old rabbit said: "That is a prickle flower, or thistle. You would get your paw full of splinters if you touched it. We will find other pretty blossoms that are not prickly."

Uncle Wiggily and Bunty were about to hop along when they saw some Lady Bugs playing a game. The Lady Bugs had marked a chalk square on the ground, such as you often make on the sidewalk to play Hop Scotch. Another Lady Bug had eight small, round stones near the square.

"What are you going to do with them?" asked Uncle Wiggily.

"This is a puzzle game," answered the largest Lady Bug. "You see there are only four corners to the marked out square. But the trick is to use all these eight stones and put one on each corner."

The cornerstone trick.

"You can't do that," said Bunty. "To use up eight stones you must have eight corners, and there are only four corners to a square."

"Still the trick can be done by doing something to the square," said the smallest Lady Bug. And she was just going to show Uncle Wiggily how to do the puzzle, when along came Jackie and Peetie Bow Wow, running to see which one would be first to pick the prickle flower. The little puppies didn't know about the stickers.

"Oh, be careful!" cried Bunty. And what happened after that, and how to do the square trick, you shall learn to-morrow night. Then, if the blackbird doesn't take a bath in the talcum powder and make himself white, I'll tell you about Uncle Wiggily and Lulu's bumps.

Eczema Formed Painful Blisters Cuticura Healed

"Eczema started with a fine rash on my arms. Later it formed blisters about the size of a bean which were full of water and very painful. It burned and was so sore I could not bear to touch it. The weight of a cup in my hand would fairly make me cry out with pain. I had my hands and arms tied up from the ends of my fingers to my shoulders. Sometimes it kept me awake for hours.

"A friend recommended Cuticura Soap and Ointment so I sent for a free sample. I purchased more, and in about three weeks I was healed." (Signed) Miss Emily B. Davis, R. R. 3, Northwood, Ont.

When Pain Comes

Two hours after eating

What many people call indigestion very often means excess acid in the stomach. The stomach nerves have been over-stimulated, and food sours. The corrective is an alkali, which neutralizes acids instantly. And the best alkali known to medical science is Phillips's Milk of Magnesia. It has remained the standard with physicians in the 50 years since its invention.

One spoonful of this harmless, tasteless alkali in water will neutralize instantly many times as much acid, and the symptoms disappear at once. You will never use crude methods when once you learn the efficiency of this. Go get a small bottle to try.

Be sure to get the genuine Phillips's Milk of Magnesia prescribed by physicians for 50 years in correcting excess acids. Each bottle contains full directions—any drugstore. (Advt.)

Cumberland

Cumberland, June 12.—The home of Mrs. W. Davis, Minto, was the scene of a very pleasing little ceremony, when a number of residents of the district gathered to compliment Miss Katherine Richardson and Mr. William Gray of Minto on their approaching marriage. The evening was spent with games and music, and after a dainty supper, dancing was enjoyed on the veranda. On behalf of those present, Mr. Smith presented the bride-to-be with a handsome set of silver flatware, with all good wishes for a happy and prosperous married life. Miss Richardson expressed her thanks. The invited guests included Mr. and Mrs. F. Horwood, Mr. and Mrs. Calnan, Mr. and Mrs. A. REFORESTATION

A burnt-over forest, such as the one the artist has sketched above, is one of Nature's saddest spectacles—desolate, wasted, useless ghosts of trees. They stand as pitiful monuments to the carelessness of a carelessly-tossed match or a tourist's neglect in leaving a smoldering camp fire.

By NEA, Through Special Permission of the Publishers of The Book of Knowledge, Copyright, 1923-26.

Foresters here are shown setting out yellow pine seedlings in Pike National Forest. Some day this area will be covered by mighty trees.

Foresters must have college degrees in forestry. They must know how thick the forest should be to grow properly.

This picture shows hundreds of future forest trees as tiny seedlings in the Savenac Nursery seed beds, Lolo National Forest, Montana. These will be planted by the foresters in vast areas in the national forests of the country. Nurseries are established in many districts where fire has destroyed the trees.

Solution of Yesterday's Puzzle

To-morrow's Horoscope

WEDNESDAY, JUNE 13, 1928

Benefic aspects dominate to-day, according to astrology which finds the planetary government most auspicious for many human ambitions.

Women are subject to the best possible direction of the stars, which encourages their public work.

Success for a woman who enters the political arena again is forecast, but she will be one of the few who attain election.

In the coming national campaign women are to exercise a tremendous mass influence, it is prognosticated, but they will meet with much bitter opposition.

This is read as a happy wedding day in which women will attain to the right domestic partnership.

Lovers may take heart to-day which seems to presage for them joy and prosperity. Quarrels are vaguely discernible, but they will not be serious.

Theatres should benefit from this rule of the stars which promises the presentation of better dramas than have been produced recently.

Once more the seers predict success from community efforts of all sorts toward public entertainment.

The best conditions for musicians will prevail in the coming Summer when many outdoor concerts will educate the people.

The afternoon of this day should be an auspicious time to seek employment of counsel.

This day is most favorable to the ambitions of men who have occupied positions in the government.

President Coolidge is to have great honors thrust upon him in the future, according to the reading of his horoscope.

Persons whose birthdate it is have the augury of prosperity to which elderly relatives may contribute.

Children born on this day probably will reach unusual success in their lives. The subjects of this sign often attain supreme heights.

CITY CHANGES BOND ISSUE FINANCE PLAN

Dominion Bank to Hold Elevator Bonds For Delivery to Buyers

A legal way out of the delay of financing progress certificates on the grain elevator work was found by the City Council last night, when on the advice of its solicitor it changed the wording of the by-law authorizing the Panama Pacific bond issue dealings and passed a covering resolution.

Acting Mayor P. R. Brown will be empowered to sign the Panama Pacific debentures as well as Mayor J. C. Pendray, to make sure that no delay will occur through the absence of the city's chief magistrate. This addition was made to the by-law authorizing the form of the bonds.

The resolution passed by the council instructs the city comptroller to deliver $508,000 of the bonds of the Panama Pacific Grain Terminals Limited to the Dominion Bank for delivery to the Canadian Bank of Commerce, which has bid in the issue at a price of $500,000 even.

The Dominion Bank is authorized by the same resolution to deliver the bonds to the Canadian Bank of Commerce; to receive the $500,000 on behalf of the city; and to deduct from the sum the amounts of progress advances made, without interest, and to hand the balance to the city.

The resolution was moved by Alderman H. O. Litchfield and seconded by Alderman James Adam. Its purpose was not explained, but it is inferred from the wording of the resolution that the Dominion Bank will finance the progress certificates of the contractors until such time as the bonds are issued, and the money received from which to make the payments from that source. The arrangement was contemplated previously in another form, but was abandoned. A sum in excess of $300,000 has been expended at the site to date, it is stated.

No change in the announced date of the issue, July 2, was communicated to the City Council last night.

CANADIAN FILMS ARE ACCEPTABLE

British Distributing Houses Ready If Material Suitable, Says J. W. Spencer

A good market exists in Great Britain for Canadian pictures if they are up to the proper standard, is the substance of a reply from J. W. Spencer, read to the City Council last night by Alderman H. O. Litchfield, chairman of the city industrial committee.

Mr. Spencer had been asked to investigate in London the chances of success for Victoria films in distribution there, stated Mr. Litchfield. Mr. Spencer's reply, by cable from the United Kingdom was as follows:

"Companies interested say quota bill helpful. Quality pictures more important. Pay $60,000 for acceptable story. Desirable picture can be marketed."

The companies referred to, stated the chairman of the committee, were the two distributing houses given by Mr. Hustwick as his references in connection with his investigations of the British film field.

The cable from Mr. Spencer supported everything the committee had claimed, and was an encouraging word on the venture the city was endeavoring to see located here, concluded Mr. Litchfield.

G. M. Irwin Receives Appointment as Assistant Engineer

G. M. Irwin of 416 17th Avenue West, Vancouver, a member of the engineering staff of Vancouver City since 1923, was appointed by the City Council last night as assistant city engineer at Victoria, at a commencing salary of $250 a month. He will fill the vacancy to be created by the retirement of Alfred O'Meara, present assistant engineer, who is about to retire on superannuation, after long and valued services to the city.

Thirteen applications were filed for the post of assistant engineer, under Frank M. Preston, city engineer. Six names were weeded out by reason of the fact that those applicants were not also registered British Columbia land surveyors. Two others lost when they filed sketchy applications, or asked too high a salary. The final selection was made from four names, with data on these applications laid before the council.

Balloting was resorted to, to separate the final two names left in the running, those of Mr. Irwin and Frank H. Allwood, the latter a Victoria engineer who has worked for the city on former occasions. Mr. Irwin received the appointment by eight ballots to two.

The successful applicant graduated at McGill, and is a member of the Association of the Civil Engineers of B.C.; a B.C.L.S., and an associate member of the U.S. Engineering body.

ON RAILROAD WORK

Mr. Irwin worked both on surveys and on engineering construction on the Grand Trunk Pacific system in pre-war times; served with the Canadian artillery overseas, and was wounded at Loos, after which he was invalided home with a broken arm. From 1919 to 1923 he lectured on civil engineering subjects at the University of British Columbia, and from 1923 to date has been steadily engaged on the engineering staff of Vancouver City, where he designed and executed the Main Street relocation plan and has done other major work for the mainland corporation.

Mr. Allwood, who was runner up for the post, is well known here, having been connected with the engineering staff of the city intermittently for some years. During the construction of the Johnson Street bridge, he was in charge as resident engineer on the job for the city, and later was connected with sewer and waterworks projects for the corporation, under Mr. Preston.

The final choice was made by the council by means of a ballot, which read eight to two in favor of Mr. Irwin when the results were announced by Acting Mayor P. R. Brown. The formal resolution of appointment was then passed. Mr. Irwin will be instructed to report on July 2, or as soon after that date as it is possible.

May Make Movies At Royal Oak

Plans for location of a moving picture studio at Royal Oak, on the spacious acres of the Rithet Farm, have advanced to the stage where negotiations with the Saanich Council have been opened by Charles F. Roland and associated capitalists of Los Angeles.

Proposals of the syndicate include establishment of a modern movie studio, to produce pictures for the British market, and creation around the studio of a high class residential subdivision.

The syndicate has asked the Saanich Council to construct trunk highways through the property, connecting with Cadboro Bay and Cordova Bay. No other aid is being sought from the municipality. Mr. Roland was in Victoria some weeks ago, and the arrangements then set in motion have progressed with speed.

AT THE THEATRES

FAMOUS CLASSIC BY VICTOR HUGO NOW ON CAPITOL SCREEN

France may well be proud of the epic film portrayal of Victor Hugo's famous classic, "Les Miserables," which opened yesterday at the Capitol Theatre.

Perhaps never before in the history of motion pictures has a production been made with such fidelity. The extravagant statements made in advance of the showing are easily borne out by the picture, for no one can doubt, after seeing this Universal-Film de France production, that the towns in which the action of the novel were supposed to have taken place were reconstructed as they appeared a century ago.

The scenes representing Paris are said to have been built at the studio, as it was impossible to reconstruct the actual Parisian streets. These massive and beautiful sets have the authentic look of time, and it is difficult to believe that they are not real, like the others.

On the stage this week the Capitol has some exceptionally fine vaudeville specialties, headed by the Cook Sisters, stars of the big Panchon & Marco "Russian Revel" innovation, these artists can sing, dance and are also very good instrumentalists. The supporting acts include Fred Gannon, the musical tramp, in a novelty offering, and Elsie Broche, a soprano soloist, in song selections; Harold Bechtel the singing announcer and M.C., along with the concert orchestra, help to make this big stage bill a winner in every respect.

LIFE OF CHRIST VIVIDLY SHOWN AT PLAYHOUSE

The wonderful reproduction of the famous Oberammargau play portraying Christ, his disciples, Pilate, King Herod and other ancient Biblical characters, opened at the Playhouse Theatre last night.

The teaching of Christ, the sacrifice that he made and his most agonizing ordeal when he carried the cross of the world to Calvary is more vividly portrayed than could be possibly be done by written words.

The Passion Play will be shown at the Playhouse Theatre all this week with a matinee Wednesday and Saturday afternoon.

RIDER HAGGARD'S FAMOUS NOVEL AT COLUMBIA THEATRE

Love, stark and passionate. Love that gave, without asking. Such is the theme of "Moon of Israel," at the Columbia Theatre.

Seldom have such love scenes been shown on the screen as appear in this film. An Israelite slave-maiden is loved by the Prince of Egypt, and she returns his love. Everything is against the lovers, for the Prince is forced into a marriage of state, and the little Jewess is betrothed to a man of her tribe. The Prince visits the land of Goshes where the Israelites are dwelling and there he arouses the enmity of Laban, who also desires the girl. Returning from this visit, the Prince is ambushed, and only the bravery of Merapi, the maiden, saves his life. In gratitude he takes her to his palace, and Merapi loses her people but gains the man she loves.

ELLALINE TERRISS STARS IN BRITISH FILM AT COLISEUM

A new kind of "Wheel of Fortune" plays an important part in the British "Napoleon" film, "Land of Hope and Glory," which opened at the Coliseum last evening with Ellaline Terriss starred in an important "mother" role, and such fine artists in the company as Lyn Harding, Robin Irvine (one of the first native stars created by the British film revival), Enid Stamp-Taylor, Arthur Pusey, Ruby Miller (in some striking "vamp" gowns), Henry Vibart and Lewin Mannering.

SPLENDID CAST IN PICTURE SHOWING NOW AT VARIETY

Kathryn Perry, the girl with the winsome face, had two wishes come true when Alfred E. Green selected her as the stenographer in "Is Zat So?" Fox Films' version of the uproarious comedy at the Variety Theatre. One was to be directed by this wizard of comedy. The other was to work in a picture with two of the most widely-discussed leading men in Hollywood—Edmund Lowe and George O'Brien.

CHARMING MEXICAN STAR PLAYS LEADING ROLE AT DOMINION

"Loves of Carmen," one of the most pretentious pictures attempted in the United States in recent years, opened last night at the Dominion Theatre with Dolores Del Rio and Victor McLaglen in the principal roles.

This picture, directed by Raoul Walsh, is out of the ordinary in more ways than one, for it brings before the camera in the same production, two popular players who leaped to fame in another Walsh production. They are Victor McLaglen and Dolores Del Rio, who played Captain Flagg and Charmaine, respectively, in "What Price Glory." In addition the cast includes Ben Bard and Don Alvarado.

The director did not want for magnificent costumes and authentic backgrounds. Edwin C. Hill, Fox representative, has been in Spain for the past year and has assembled an elaborate wardrobe for the picture. The acting of a notable cast, excellent scenic effects and above all, striking realism, make "Loves of Carmen" one of the most effective screen products of the season.

D'OYLY CARTE OPERA COMPANY TO TOUR CANADA

Mr. D'Oyly Carte has now made arrangements with Lang & O'Neill to bring back his Savoy Opera Company in September with the Gilbert & Sullivan operas, and the same cast as on the last visit. The operas to be presented will be "Patience," "Iolanthe," "Ruddigore," "The Pirates of Penzance" and "Trial by Jury," and in all probability "The Mikado" and possibly one of the other old favorites. The tour will be of longer duration than the last, as the company will stay for a lengthy season in each big centre. The tour will open in Montreal on September 17.

EXPERIMENTERS FIND TREATMENT

Infantile Paralysis Curable in Early Stages

Laboratory Workers Devise Sera Effective Before Paralysis Shows

The present status of medical knowledge of infantile paralysis was outlined before the British Columbia Medical Association yesterday afternoon at the Empress Hotel by Dr. Fred H. Mackay of the Department of Neurology, McGill University.

One of the chief changes in the viewpoint of the profession is that infantile paralysis must be regarded as an acute infectious disease, rather than a neurological disease localized in the nervous system. This viewpoint is necessary because treatment, to be effective, must be instituted in the very earliest manifestations of infection, before paralysis appears, he said.

During an epidemic, when medical men are keenly watchful for symptons, timely treatment is less difficult because positive evidence may be obtained from changes in the character of the spinal fluid. To this end the appearance of any infection, whether manifested in children by fever, slight indisposition, or muscle pains should be investigated immediately by withdrawing and examining a sample of the spinal fluid, a painless test to the patient, Dr. MacKay stated.

Positive indications in the fluid, at this stage, serve to differentiate this infection from any casual infection and give opportunity for timely treatment.

Treatment consists in the use of newly developed sera, prepared by various laboratory workers in this field.

MUST FORESTALL PARALYSIS

"There is no serum which is of any use after paralysis has made its appearance," declared Dr. Mackay, pointing to the necessity of early diagnosis, which must be made, to be effective, before the paralytic stage has arrived.

"Once paralysis has made its appearance, rest and light massage are the only measures at present known," said Dr. MacKay, considering discovery of remedial treatment, for use at this stage, to be extremely unlikely.

GIVES DEMONSTRATION

Dr. F. A. C. Scrimger, V.C., discussed treament of fractures, using an orderly from the Royal Jubilee Hospital to demonstrate the remarkable system of cotton and plaster splints devised by Dr. Delbet of Paris, together with a painless method of setting broken bones. The French surgeon was stated to have his patients walk the day after fractured legs had been set in cast, and Dr. Scrimger remarked: "This method is ingenious, worthy and typical of the French school." For painless setting of broken bones a rope is led from the patient's leg over the bed-end, and attached to a bucket which is slowly filled with water, so creating a gradual increase in tension on the limb until the bone is in alignment.

Dr. Scrimger also told of recent investigations into a little known bowel disorder.

Dr. Andrew Hunter discussed methods of testing of kidney functions, showing the great information to be derived from administration of a large quantity of water to a patient under test, and the facts to be deduced from elimination for one day of all water from the diet.

The one supremely good health building tonic that is also the one great weight producer known to modern science the country over is McCoy's Cod Liver Extract Tablets.

NEW HISTORY OF WAR FOR SCHOOLS NOW SUGGESTED

St. John, N.B., June 12—Hon. J. B. M. Baxter, Premier of New Brunswick, in an address of welcome to the delegates attending the second annual Dominion convention of the Canadian Legion of the British Empire Service League here yesterday, made a strong plea for a Canadian history of the Great War for use as a textbook in the public schools. Such a book, he said, should contain something more vital than mere dates and not be merely a record of achievements, but instead a "record of the soul that made them possible."

More than 200 delegates were extended a cordial welcome to the city and province by Lieutenant-Governor W. F. Todd, Premier Baxter, Mayor W. W. White of St. John and other officials.

Gen. Sir Percy Lake, Dominion president, formally opened the convention.

An impressive feature of the ceremony was the unveiling of a portrait of the late Field Marshal Earl Haig, grand president of the British Empire Service League, by the president, followed by two minutes of silence in honor of the departed leader.

Sir Percy Lake then read several communication from ex-service organizations conveying greetings.

Fitzroy Is to Be British Speaker

London, June 12 (Canadian Press Cable)—It is now regarded as certain that Right Hon. Edward A. Fitzroy, Conservative M.P. for Daventry, will be appointed Speaker of the British House of Commons in succession to Right Hon. J. H. Whitley who will shortly retire from the position, which he has held since 1921.

Captain Fitzroy is deputy chairman of committees, to which office he was appointed in 1924, and he is said to have filled the position with fairness and dignity.
